

1852. He died November 26, 1826, in Washington, N.Y. A son, Walter⁷, is now living in Dutchess County, N.Y.

- VI. Amos⁶, b. in Washington, N.Y., 1760, m. Mary Fowler. Died 1802. I have a copy of his will, in which he mentions all his children, wife, and brother and mother. Know little more of him. Have an autograph.
- VII. David⁶, b. in Washington, N.Y. Came to Canaan with his brothers Amos⁶, Jonathan⁶, and Daniel⁶. Moved to Union Springs, N.Y., in 1824, where he died 1848.
- VIII. Daniel, b. —, m. first Mary Moor, second Mary Dorland. Was a Quaker or Friend. Confined to his farm during Revolution because he would not drill. Afterwards went to Canada. The above information from Joseph⁶ Haight. In a foot note mention is made of an agreement of Reuben Haight, of Dutchess County, about land for a Quakers' Boarding School at Nine Partners in 1797, recorded at Poughkeepsie.

Daniel Haight, youngest son of Joseph, was the founder of the Canadian branch, which we are now about to trace.

In consequence of the disappearance of the family record the date of the first and second marriage cannot be accurately given. His father Joseph, was an able farmer residing in Dutchess County, N.Y., and had eight children, of whom he was the youngest. He was born January 14, 1764, and married first Mary, daughter of