

CHARLES PUNCHARD,

Bookfeller, Binder, Stationer, and Printer,
At his CIRCULATING LIBRARY,
In the BUTTER MARKET, IPSWICH:

Lets out to Read, Novels, Plays, &c. &c. At four Shillings per Quarter,—twelve Shillings per Year.—Or, one Penny per Evening for each Volume or Play.

☞ New Books and Plays purchased as soon as Published.—Catalogues may be had at his SHOP.

Where may be had the following USEFUL FAMILY MEDICINES, viz.

Beiton's British Oil.	Leyden Pill.	Speediman's Pills.
Dr. James's Fever Powders.	Maredant's Drops.	Spilsbury's Drops.
Glass's Magnesia.	Ridley's Asthmatic Pills.	Turlington's Balsam.
Leake's Pills & Drops	Smith's Specific Drops.	Walker's Jesuit Drops.

With many others, as mentioned in his SHOP-BILL.

He begs leave to inform his Friends, and the Public in General, that of him may be had (on the Shortest Notice) every Book or Medicine advertis'd in Mr. SHAVE's Ipswich Journal, though his Name be not insert'd,—All Orders will be thankfully received, and gratefully acknowledged,

BOOKBINDING in all its Branches—PRINTING NEATLY and CORRECTLY Perform'd.
COPPER-PLATE PRINTING BY COMMISSION.