

70. He married Polly Butler, born 1765; she died Sept. 3, 1813, aged 48. He was a house and ship joiner by trade. His house was on the east side of the meadows, on the hill; he did but very little farming, most of the time he worked at his trade. He moved to Stockbridge, Mass., about 1800, where he bought a farm about four miles north of the town, and four miles south of the town of Lenox, where he lived and died. The land there lies upon a bed of marble which is worked to a large extent about two miles east in the town of Lee. They had seven children, four born in Portland, three in Stockbridge. Gilbert, born Oct. 12, 1790. Polly married — Willard; Emily married Hiram Taylor and moved to Barre, Vermont; Electa, born 1797; died Mar. 19, 1816, aged 19; Caroline married — Ellis and moved to Vermont; Hatsel, born Mar. 1, 1800; Jeremiah, Jr., born in Stockbridge, Feb. 7, 1807. Gilbert, son of Jeremiah and Polly, born in Portland, Oct. 12, 1790, went with his father to Stockbridge; married Abigail Benton; they had six children: Frank H. married Ann Lester; Ransom married Elizabeth Hunt; George G. married — Gladstone; Augusta married F. Bliss; Ann married John Collins; Mary married Gilbert Bangs.

HATSEL BUCK, son of Jeremiah and Polly (Butler) Buck, born Mar. 1, 1800, married Harriet Dunn; they had seven children. Benjamin P. Buck married Margaret Harder; Benjamin and Margaret had two children. Children of Hatsel: George, Hattie, Catharine married Daniel Thorp; Hatsel married Anna Little; Ellen married Daniel Roberts; Gilbert A. married Lucinda —; Frank H. Buck, son of Gilbert and Abigail (Benton), married Ann Lester; their children: Katie and Abbie, twins, Orren C., Matilda, Edward.