

Genealogical and Revolutionary
RECORDS

OF

Edwin Sedgwick Chittenden

AND

Niles Searles Chittenden.

*Taken (with additional notes) from the Year Book of Minnesota
Society Sons of American Revolution.
Published at St. Paul, 1895.*

---

EDWIN SEDGWICK CHITTENDEN (G. A. R).

Lawyer. Born at Rensselaerville, N. Y., January 1, 1843.

NILES SEARLES CHITTENDEN,

Merchant. Born at Rensselaerville, N. Y., September 8, 1848.

Son of Major Hervey Orville (used Orville Hervey) Chittenden, of Albany, N. Y., and Nancy Cowles, (who married, second, Hon. John E. Paterson, grandson of Gen. John Paterson, who was one of the Board that tried Major Andre); grandson of Col. Hervey Chittenden, (~~under~~ <sup>served in</sup> ~~orders~~ war of 1812)* and Sarah Pratt, of Durham, N. Y.; great-grandson of CAPT. JAIROS CHITTENDEN, of

* Have his record of service (since obtained).