

RICHARD DOLE.

In the name of God & by his Assistance, I Richard Dole sen^r of Newbury in the County of Essex in the province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England Do Humbly comitt my Soule Body and Spirit both in life and Death into the everlasting Arms of God all sufficient my Heavenly father and unto Jesus christ my alone Saviour and Blessed Redeemer thru' the Power and presents of his eternall Spirit, my Body to the Earth whence its origenall was Taken, in Hope of a Happy and Glorious Resurrection in Great Day of the man Christ Jesus to him be Glory both now & ever Amen.

And for such Good things of this world as God hath been pleased in this my Pilgrimage to Comitt to my Stuardship, I as much as in me is do dispose as is heerafter expressed.

Imp I Give to Patience my Deare & loving wife (besides what I Promised her upon our Mariage by a writing under my hand & seale bearing Date Octob^r 29th 1690 acknowledged by me before the Worshipf^l Nathani^l Saltingstall Esq^r) I Do now give her the use of the Bed & Bedding together wth all other the furniture that I shall leave in my Parlour during the time that she remaines my Widow, As also eight cord of wood p^r Añum to be brought & laid convenient to the house by the charg of my execut^s heerafter named during the Time afore sd, Also I give her my now Riding Horse, and my Bridle, saddle and Pillion, and also two Cows at her owne choyce & also two shoates which I giue to my said wife freely foreuer, the said Cows & horse to be wintered and suffered by the charg of my execut^s during my wives remaining my widow but if the Horse or Cows should faile thru age from being servisable my wife shall be supplied by my Execut^s wth such which shall be good & servisable at my execut^s charge, Also I give my sd wife two Rods square of Ground neer my now dwelling house for a Garden where shee shall choose to be fenced well and so to be maintained at the charg of my execut^s, and so to remaine unto her during her being my Widow, ffarther I giue to my said wife six Bushills of good winter Apples yearly and a Hogshead to Putt them into, and one Barrell of Sider yearly, also I give her the use of all the Glasses and Galle-potts in my cubbord, Also a good peice of land sufficient to sow half a Peck of flax-seed yearly out of my owne land at her owne choyce all which shee shall enjoy during her being my widow, Also I give to her my said wife freely for Euer twenty pounds of Good cotten wooll & twenty pounds of Good flax teer & thirty pounds of Good sheeps wooll, Also the liñen wheele that she useth to spin on, also one good Cotten wheele & a peir of good Cards, also one p^r of sheets & one Blanket also a fyre pan & warming Pan, Also twenty Bushills of Good indian Corne, and four Bushills of Rye and two Bushills of wheat & half a Barrell of my Pork & half a Barrell of Beife and twenty shillings in Mony, and four Bushills of Malt and a good Sack,