

4. EDWARD KILTON. Private. Went out in a Milton company. Served one year from Dec. 1775, in a regiment of the Mass. Line. The officers were:—Capt. Elijah Vose and Lt.-Col. John Greaton.

He married Hannah Bird, in Dorchester, Mass., Oct. 29, 1789. He died in Suffolk Co., Mass., Sept. 3, 1840.

He was sixty-one years of age in 1818.

5. JONATHAN^s KELTON. Private. Enlisted for three years, May 14, 1777, in the 9th Mass. Reg't. The officers were:—Captain Blanchard and Col. James Wesson. Discharged May 14, 1780.

He was a son of Jonathan^s (Jonathan,^s Thomas,^s Thomas¹).

6. LUCAS^s KELTON. Private. He enlisted May 14, 1777, in the 9th Mass. Regiment. The officers were:—Captain Blanchard and Col. James Wesson. He died while in camp at Valley Forge, March 7, 1778.

He was a son of Jonathan^s (Jonathan,^s Thomas,^s Thomas¹).

7. MORRIL KILTON. Sergeant. Enlisted for three years, Jan. 21, 1777, in the 8th Mass. Regiment. Captain Wiley; and Col. Michael Jackson.

He was transferred to the 7th Mass. Regiment, Oct. 23, 1777. Capt. Blanchard; and Col. Ichabod Alden.

8. JOHN KELTON. Enlisted for three years, in Feb. 1781, in the 3d Mass. Regiment. Captain Story; Col. Jackson; and Adjutant John R. Stafford. He was discharged in the State of New York, Dec. 31, 1783. His discharge was signed by Major-General Henry Knox.

He married Rachel Wait, in Northampton, Mass., June 4, 1772. John died in Northampton, Mass., Feb. 4, 1827, aged eighty years.

A son of John went to Missouri about 1827 or '30, and in 1847 it was not known if this son were living.