

Eleventh Regiment of Militia. At New York in 1776 on their March to West Chester.

This Regiment was composed of the companies from Woodstock, Pomfret and Killingly.

The company commanded by Lieutenant Paine Converse contained the following, by name of Prince from Killingly.

SAMUEL PRINCE,
ROBERT PRINCE,
DAVID PRINCE,
JOHN PRINCE.

In company commanded by Captain Joseph Abbott, of Pomfret, the following :

TIMOTHY PRINCE.

In company commanded by Lieutenant Stephen Tucker of Woodstock, (a return of the Sixth Company of the 11th Reg't in the state of Conn.)

JOSEPH PRINCE (Private.)

Men Who Served in the War of 1812.

Connecticut Militia.

ABEL PRINCE, Sergeant. Place of service, New Haven; commander, Caleb Thompson; term of service, Sept. 8, 1814 to Nov. 5, 1814.

AMASA PRINCE, Private. Place of service, New London; commander, Alpheus Corbin; term of service, June 21, 1813 to June 28, 1813.

AMOS PRINCE, Private. Place of Service not shown; commander, James Wilson; term of service, Sept. 13, 1813 to Nov. 1, 1813.