

that said Prince is no longer indebted to the Reg't of Thomas Crafts, for arms and accoutrements delivered to him, dated Boston, April 20, 1779. Rank, Lieutenant.

NOTE. It is probable this Thomas Prince and the one above, who was Sergeant, are one and same person as the Sergeant's time expired May 8, 1777, and continued from that date to Feb. 26, 1779, as above stated, as they are mentioned in same Co. and Reg't.—Editor.

THOMAS PRINCE appears with rank of Private in Capt. (Lieut.) Moses Bradstreet's detachment, in service for defence of Gloucester Harbor, 14 days. Residence, Rowley; dated Rowley, Nov. 15, 1775.

THOMAS PRINCE appears among a list of men belonging to North Yarmouth, Cumberland County, raised to re-enforce the army, Col. J. Mitchell's Reg't, dated Dec. 3, 1776.

THOMAS PRINCE appears with rank of Private on muster and pay-rolls of Capt. Jesse Sturtevant's Co., Col. Titcomb's Reg't. Time of service, 2 months, 5 days; time of enlistment, April 28, 1777; service at R. I. Roll dated Halifax, Sept 24, 1777. Remarks: Marched to R. I. in April, 1777.

NOTE. There are records of PRINCES which are (Negro) colored,—one in Capt. Strong's Co. from Pittsfield, who marched to Fort Ann, June 30, 1777; discharged, July 26; service, 3 weeks, 5 days. One from Amesbury, enlisted for Amesbury, dated Feb. 11, 1778; term, 3 years. One from County of York, town of York, enlisted for York. One in William Todd's Co., Col. Thomas Crafts' Reg't, dated Sept. 21, 1777, for service from July 31, 1777, to Oct. 1, 1777. Time of service, 2 months. Remarks: (6th Artillery Co.) He received bounty for 8 months' service, from April 30, 1777, to Dec. 30, 1777. One from Brookline marched on the Alarm of April 19, 1775. Length
