NEW HAMPSHIRE

In Revolutionary War.

Mr. F. A. Prince, Danielson, Conn.

Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that the records of this Office show the following in relation to service of Abel and James Prince in Revolutionary War. They are the only men by name of PRINCE that our records contain from this state.

Very respectfully,

A. D. AYLING, Adjutant General.

ABEL PRINCE appears on a list of Capt. Taylor's Company of Militia which marched from Amherst, Dec. 8, 1775, to join the Continental army on Winter Hill. Rank, Private. Abel Prince also appears as Private on a list of Capt Philip Putnam's Co., Col. Nahum Baldwin's Reg't, raised in Sept., 1776, and sent into the state of New York for purpose of re-enforcing the army there. This Reg't was in the battle of White Plains, Oct. 28, 1776, and was dismissed in Dec., 1776. Abel Prince again appears on a pay-roll of Capt. Stephen Peabody's Co., which Company marched from Amherst to Ticonderoga on the Alarm of June 30, 1777. Rank, Private; engaged, June 30, 1777; discharged July 4, 1777; time of service, 5 days.
