

England, June 28, 1851, and is buried in the tomb of Sir Rupert George, Bart., in St. Mary's Churchyard, Battersea, London. Mrs. Cochrane died in Edinburgh, September 5, 1851, and is buried in the Ramsay tomb, in St. John's Churchyard.

Children

Rupert Inglis, b. May 31, 1836, d. January 7, 1864. He was in the 34th (Cumberland) Foot: Ensign July 14, 1854; Lieut. February 9, 1855. Served at the siege of Sebastopol in 1854-5, and in the Indian campaigns of 1857-59, and received the Medjidie and Turkish medal and clasp. He died of an accidental shot received from a comrade while hunting.

Isabella Ramsay, b. September 8, 1838

Bayard Clarke, b. March 11, 1840, d. August 1864, at Bermuda of yellow fever. He was First Lieutenant in the Royal Engineers. Commission, June 23rd, 1857

Lucy, b. December 7, 1841, d. June 13, 1866. Buried in Edinburgh

Harriet Georgina Alice, b. December 7, 1841

Ella, b. October 27, 1843, d. August 25, 1881. Buried in Edinburgh

William George, b. January 12, 1846, d. December 25, 1877.

Of these daughters: Isabella Ramsay, was m. to Edward King, Esq., of New York, and died March 1, 1873. She is buried in Jamaica, Long Island. Her children were: Edward Ramsay, d. September 20, 1863; Isabella Clarke; Alice Bayard (m. to Herman LeRoy Edgar); James Gore (m. Sarah E. Erving); Elizabeth Gracie, and Rupert Cochrane. Edward King m. (2) Elizabeth Fisher.

Harriet Georgina Alice was m. October 20, 1868, to Sir James Thomas Stewart Richardson, Bart. of Pittfour, Perthshire, Scotland, late Captain 78th Highlanders and Hon. Col. 3rd Battalion Black Watch; eldest son of