

January 14, 1733, "Ordered paid Teunis Tiebout the sum of One pound ten shillings for making a Well in the Broad Street near the Watch House."

(Perhaps a portion of these records apply to Theunis Tiebout, Jr.)

Of the four sons of Theunis Tiebout.<sup>2</sup>

HENDRICK<sup>3</sup>—Married October 9, 1720, Elisabet, daughter of Garret and Sara Burger, and had children—Teunis, Sara, Marytje, Theunis and Elisabeth.

JOHANNES<sup>3</sup>—Married June 15, 1717, Marytje Van de Venter and had children—Maria, Cornelus, Theunis and Annatje.

THEUNIS<sup>3</sup>—Married July 19, 1729, Margretta Drinkwater and had children—Antje, Alburtus, Antje, Hendrick and Hendrick, and probably Sara.

ALBARTUS<sup>3</sup>—Married October 12, 1728, Cornelia Bogart and had children—Alburtus, Margrietje, Maria, Nicolaus, Johannes, Albartus, Cornelia, Cornelia and Elisabet.

COLLEGIATE CHURCH RECORDS.

In Liber 62-172 of Conveyances, New York, is a deed dated February 3, 1758—not recorded until June 17, 1802—"John Tiebout, Albartus Tiebout and Sara Ewouts, executors of the will of Tunis Tiebout, deceased, late of New York, carpenter, to Vincent Tillow, Jr., of New York—House and lot in the Dockward, east side of Broad St. bounded on the west by Broad Street, on the north by party wall of the house of David Van Gelder, on the south by house and ground of Tunis Tiebout and on the east by ground of widow Breested—being seventeen feet ten and one-half inches on Broad Street by fifty feet six inches or thereabouts," consideration £200.