

years in Fair street; 9. Ann, b. June 7, 1819; m. John Yereance, from Rutherford, and settled between Geneva and Waterloo, N. Y.; 10. Peter, b. Nov. 25, 1821; d. in inf.; 11. Peter, b. Sept. 28, 1824; m. Eliza Hopper, and removed to Passaic, where his dau. m. Henry K. Coddington, a lawyer, then of Passaic, but now (1896) of Newark.

385 IX. Hendrick, b. March 21, 1781; m. Peggy Berthoff; d. May 17, 1808. He was called Henry H. Doremus. By his will, dated May 6, 1808, witnessed by Simeon, Henry and Peter Doremus, proved June 25, 1808, he gave his wife Peggy a "Bed and Bedding and set of curtains, close press and Spinning wheel one Set of Silver tea Spoons Three pictures by the name of faith hope and charity and the remainder of my personal estate to be . . . sold at public sale . . . and all over plus moneys to be appropriated to the bringing up of my son Iles."¹ This is about the first will of any resident in this vicinity that makes special mention of pictures as subjects of bequests. His wid. m. 2d, Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Polifly. Hendrick had but one child: Giles Barthoff, d. May 6, 1822, aged 15 yrs., 10 mos., 9 days; he was a hunchback.

387 X. Susanna (Sukey), b. Nov. 18, 1783; m. John Ernis, April 1, 1804. He was a shoemaker, tanner and currier, and learned his trade with his future father-in-law. He removed to New York. Issue: 1. Hendrick Doremus, b. March 25, 1807; 2. Ellener Ann, b. Feb. 2, 1811; d. July 26, 1815; 3. James; 4. Henry; 5. John; 6. Thomas, a carpenter, went to Elizabeth; 7. Mary, twin with Thomas.

Thomas(88)-Cornelis-Thomas-Cornelis Doremus and Rachel Spier had children:

395 I. Cornelius, b. Feb. 16, 1765; m. Lena (Eleanor) dau. of Anthony Mandeville and Willempye Van Houten²; d. Nov. 8, 1859; she d. Dec. 27, 1846, aged 75 yrs., 11 mos., 2 days. He was a farmer, of superior intelligence and refinement, and lived at Doremustown, in the building formerly occupied as the parsonage of the Montville

¹ Bergen County Wills, A, 206.

² Willempye was b. May 9, 1739, dau. of Adrian-Peter Van Houten and Angenietje Boogaerd.