

4 of Philip De-la-Noye

Dr Thomas Delano (Delanoy) b Duxbury Mass 21 Mar 1642 d. do. 13 Apr 1723 (Physician, tailor, surveyor, & constable) (His grave may be seen at Dux. beside the Aldens') m. 1st 1667 Mary Alden, dau of Hon. John & Priscilla (Mullins) Alden, b Dux abt 1643 d do bef. Sept 12-1688 m. 2d 24 Oct 1699 Hannah Bartlett, (wid. of Ebenezer) 1 Benoni, b Oct 30-1667. 2 Thomas Jr. b. 1669 ? 3 Jonathan (Sr) b. 1676 4 David. 5 Mary. 6 Sarah. 7 Ruth 8 Joseph b Sept 1-1685. (Plymouth Probate records 1722, Book 4. "To son Benoni, 5 shillings, Thomas Jr. half a lot of land at Middleboro, easterly side of Assawampsett Pond, Jonathan beech lot, chest and "sword," David, 5 shillings, dau. Mary Delano, best bed and furniture and half of the moveable estate, also 20 shillings due from John Drew at Middleboro, Sarah Drew, 5 shillings, Ruth Drew, next best bed, bolster, blanket and coverlet, and one quarter moveable estate in doors. Grand dau Deborah Weston, bed bolster and remainder of moveable estate in-doors. To son Joseph, half of my moveable estate out doors and my hand irons. Witnesses, Samuel Weston Joshua Delano & Hannah Alden."

It appears from registry of deeds in Plymouth that Thomas Delano is mentioned as "Dr" and "Tailor." Winsor Hist of Dux mentions his being elected Constable 1691. 1676 Thomas Delano and John Rogers Jr appointed to survey public highways.)

(John Alden of Hertfordshire & the Temple Lon. granted 1607 a coat differenced from the ancient armes thus: Gu., a bezant bet. 3 crescents all within a bordure engrailed ermine—anc't coat: Gu., 3 crescents ermine. The real diff. is the bordure Surname is Aldam Alder Aldon Allden Alldin & Alden (Herts & Middlesex) (Gens. 1867, '89 & '98 chart '93) Alden: Hon. John Alden 1599-1687 was apprenticed to a cooper at Southampton Eng. in 1620 he sailed on & was a signer of the "Mayflower Compact" Served as a Magistrate in the Colony many years Rev Timothy Alden "Collect. Amer. Epitaphs" relates as authentic the incident about the "courtship of Standish" for whom he was interceding with Priscilla Mullens—she answered "Prithee John why do you not speak for yourself?" This was used by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (himself a des. of "Priscilla") 1807-82, in his famous poem: "The Courtship of Miles Standish" pub. 1858—which contains abt 20000 words) He m. Plym 1621 Priscilla dau. William Mullins (Molynes) of the Mayflower 1620 b. abt. 1602 d. Dux bet. 1680 &