(It appears from documents in the possession of George W Delano No 35 Nassau St N-Y. that Benjamin Delano above held a claim against the Spanish Government for stores taken from him in one of his voyages while engaged in the maratine and merchant service; before his death. Anexed is a copy of the proceedings in the case. Translation. " Don Manuel de los Reyes and Don Juan Patino Treasures, Principal Ministers of the Royal Revenue of this place and Island for his Majesty &c.

Certify, That in consequence of the decree of the Govenor Intendant and Captain General of this same place and Island dated yesterday there has been placed in these Royal vaults by Benjamin Delano the sum of Eleven thousand and six hundred dollars, two rials and twenty eight marevedas, being the proceeds of sundry effects which have been taken from him for account of the Royal stores, for provision and relief of this place, and of which sum we have taken possession on condition that it should be paid to him by the Treasurer General, of Mexico from the Royal Chests of Vera Cruz, deducting it from the first revenue to be remitted to this Post. In Testimony of which and that it may have been the said Benjamin Delano or his attorney to receive the said sum from the Royal Chest we give this present in the Royal Office of Porto Rico the eight of June, eighteen hundred and five.

Signed, Manuel Reyas.

Juan Patino
