

ESTABLISHED 1865.

The New York Daily Bulletin,

THE BEST COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL PAPER.

Press Opinions, 1872.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is exceeded in size by only two of the daily blanket sheets of the city. It is strictly a first-class paper. It gives unusual space and prominence to its market reports, which cover every important branch of trade, and is also an authority on commercial statistics.—New York Evening Post.

THE FEATURES OF THE DAILY BULLETIN are the fullness and accuracy of its market reports, to which it gives more space than any general newspaper can afford to set apart for that purpose. The editorial department of THE BULLETIN is able, and its business and railroad news is full and fresh.—New York Tribune.

WE NOTICE THAT THE PROSPERITY OF THE DAILY BULLETIN has enabled the publishers to add four columns to its news and advertising pages.—New York Times.

THERE IS NO BETTER PAPER OF ITS KIND IN THIS CITY OR THIS COUNTRY, and it is not surprising that the business community are finding it out.—New York Evening Express.

THE DAILY BULLETIN is now the acknowledged financial and commercial paper in this city, and has an array of facts and figures about markets and produce, at home and abroad, that fairly bewilders the commercial editors of the dear old Journal of Commerce.—New York Star.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is a journal which is exclusively devoted to the interests of the business community, and editorially treats only such subjects as are of interest to merchants and bankers. The paper, under its present management, has been enlarged four times, thus giving substantial evidence that it is appreciated by the classes it is designed to serve.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE BULLETIN is exclusively a commercial and financial journal, and aims, by excluding politics from its columns, and all such general news as is not pertinent to business affairs, and by giving great labor and large space to the various trade market reports, to become an authority on business affairs among business men. The editorials in the BULLETIN are able, and are very extensively quoted both here and in Europe.—New York Evening Mail.

THE BULLETIN is exclusively a commercial and financial journal, and as such furnishes complete and trustworthy reports of the various trade markets. Its editorials are always able and intelligent.—N. Y. Commercial and Financial Chronicle.

NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN.—This is one of the best and most trustworthy commercial papers published in New York City. Its size is now more nearly equal to its merits, and its enterprise cannot fail to win it still further patronage from the business community.—Utica Morning Herald.

WE LIKE THE NEW YORK BULLETIN, and shall continue to like it, although it is enlarged. Its manageable size was one of its good features, and we hope it will not grow any bigger in the single sheet form. It is a rare thing among commercial papers, brim-full of news in its own field, of fresh commercial intelligence interesting to everybody. Commerce is not a dull subject, as the BULLETIN proves.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is a journal which is exclusively devoted to the interests of the business community, and editorially treats only such subjects as are of interest to merchants and bankers. The paper has been under its present management less than three years, and has been enlarged four times, thus giving substantial evidence that it is appreciated by the classes it is designed to serve.—Jersey City Times.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is one of the best and most reliable commercial dailies published in the country. Extracts from its well-filled pages are frequently copied in the Whig. No merchant who wishes to be well posted in commercial and financial affairs will ever regret his subscription to the BULLETIN.—Richmond Whig.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is decidedly the ablest daily, designed as an exclusively commercial paper, in the country. Its columns are ever filled with the latest news from all sections, and its editorials are really the soundest and most instructive that grace any of our exchanges.—New Orleans Picayune.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is the only daily morning paper published at the North devoted exclusively to commercial and financial affairs. Making this department its speciality, it has won, by the marked ability and unflagging industry with which it has been conducted, a prominent position in the front rank of commercial journalism, a title which our readers will promptly accord it from the extracts we constantly make from its columns for their information.—New Orleans Times.

THE NEW YORK BULLETIN has met with a substantial and deserved success as a paper devoted to financial and commercial interests. It now contains thirty-six columns of matter. Its business management speaks for itself, and its editorial columns are conducted with marked ability.—Cincinnati Gazette.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN.—The BULLETIN, as all know upon whom devolves the duty of making up commercial matter for a paper, is more valuable in material than any other commercial issue in the country.—St. Louis Missouri Republican.

THE NEW YORK DAILY BULLETIN is a journal of great usefulness and of great interest, and we can and do very heartily recommend it to business men. Nowhere else can they find market reports and other business information at once so full, so prompt, and so accurate.—Oswego Press.
