

Manchester, New Hampshire, is the fifty-fifth city in population in the United States according to last census—larger than any other two cities in New Hampshire. It is fifty-two miles from Boston, and is devoted to Manufacturing. It makes over one hundred miles of cloth, cottons and woollens, ten thousand pairs of hose, and ten thousand meal bags each day, thirteen locomotives a month, steam-fire engines, and the various products of wood, copper, iron and steel in large numbers. Its pay-roll for labor alone is over one quarter of a million dollars a month. To be more exact, the several manufacturing establishments employ 9,860 persons, and the monthly pay-roll is $395,400. That money is nearly all spent in the city, making it one of the liveliest places in the East.

THE TWO LEADING NEWSPAPERS IN MANCHESTER ARE THE

MIRROR AND FARMER,

AND

Daily Mirror and American.

JOHN B. CLARKE, Editor and Proprietor.

The MIRROR AND FARMER is an eight-page paper of forty eight columns, published every Saturday, and is the only agricultural paper in the State. It is, in fact, two papers in one, a Farming paper and Newspaper, employing over one hundred correspondents.

It has a larger circulation than any other weekly paper out of Boston, in New England. It reaches, by Clubs of from ten to three hundred, all the towns, villages and cities of the State, and circulates largely in Vermont, considerably in Maine, and a little in all the other States.

It is a perfect medium for advertising in New Hampshire, and its price for advertising is very low, being less than a cent a line for every thousand circulation.

READ THE FOLLOWING FROM CROFUTT'S WESTERN WORLD:

Crofutt's Western World, published in New York, by George A. Crofutt, whose prospectus appeared in our columns a few weeks since, to which we called attention, advising our readers to send for a copy, says:

"Thanks, friend Clarke. Your readers have sent for them, to the number of nearly a thousand; and I am only doing you paper justice when I say the little advertisement that appeared in its columns did me more good than the same one in sixteen other newspapers, claiming a circulation of over 1,200,000 copies combined—more good, I say, than all the rest together. When I advertise the MIRROR will be my first choice."

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, (Invariably in Advance,) . . . . . $1 50.

THE DAILY has three editions each day, and is the leading Daily in the State, read generally in the City, and sold in the cars on the various railroads, and in the cities of Dover, Portsmouth, Nashua, Lawrence and Concord. It has the dispatches furnished the Associated Press, and is first-class in every way.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, . . . . . $6 00.
