The OHIO STATE JOURNAL, the only morning paper in Columbus, a town of 50,000 inhabitants, is one of the oldest papers in the West, having been started in 1811, and enjoys a wide circulation at home and throughout the State. Its weekly issue is the most popular family journal west of New York, and has a large and rapidly growing circulation. It inserts but few advertisements, and, therefore, is one of the best mediums offered the business public.
