One Million of Communicants.

In almost every nook and corner of the South the HERALD goes. It has also a very considerable circulation at the North. It is read by three or four thousand preachers, and by not less than sixty thousand other persons who scarcely see any other paper. The HERALD has correspondents in every State, and its columns are filled with the best that the country affords.

The Methodist,

PUBLISHED WEEKLY,

No. 15 MURRAY ST., - - - NEW YORK.

The METHODIST takes rank with the first religious journals of the country in character, influence, and circulation; it represents the progressive and intelligent element of the largest Christian denomination in the United States—a church numbering some 10,000 regular ministers and nearly a million and a half of members. It reaches the leading men of the denomination in all the great centres, and in the towns and villages of the country, and finds its way to the reading rooms of their public libraries and Young Men's Christian Associations, where it is read weekly by many thousands.

The METHODIST is the only journal in the Methodist Episcopal Church which has a truly national circulation. The advertisements inserted in its columns are of the most respectable kind. We invite your attention to our liberal advertising rates.
