

From the foregoing it appears, that this coat of arms must have been assumed and used by the Nicoll family in Scotland, and, that the same is the case with the Nicolson arms found in Burke and described above, since neither is registered in the Lyon Office.

A copy of this FAMILY RECORD will be placed in "The Astor Library," New York City, and, in the "Newburgh Free Library," Newburgh, N. Y.