National Parks Omnibus Management Act of 1998

This legislation provided funding and management reform of the National Park Service to ensure that public facilities and services are improved upon, in order to protect America’s national parks into the 21st century.

Senator Craig Thomas (R-WY)