

WINNING TITANIC MEMORIAL DESIGN
By Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney

Chosen by the Fine Arts Commission for the National Monument to be Erected in Washington to Commemorate the Heroism of the Men Who Gave Their Lives That the Women Passengers of the Titanic Might Live.

CHILD LIFE IN NEW PORTRAITS

Work of Miss Elinor M. Barnard, the Artist Who Is to Paint the Portrait of Princess Mary, Daughter of George V., now Exhibited at the Arlington Galleries.

"BILLIE" WALDORF AND NANCY CHILDREN OF MR. AND MRS. WALDORF ASTOR (NANNIE LANGHORNE).

James, Lord Willoughby De Eresby, and Lady Priscilla, Children of the Earl and Countess of Ancaster, Formerly Miss Eloise Breesse of New York.
(Photos by Paul Labb.)

Camera Flashes From the Fighting Before Ojinaga

TRAINING A GUN ON OJINAGA.
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

GENERAL ORTEGA'S MEN OPENING FIRE IN THE FIRST ASSAULT ON THE FEDERALS IN OJINAGA.

MEXICAN REFUGEES, SAFE ON AMERICAN SOIL UNDER PROTECTION OF UNITED STATES SENTRIES, LOOKING BACK ANXIOUSLY FOR LESS FORTUNATE RELATIVES.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)