

KING GEORGE V, QUEEN MARY, AND LORD KITCHENER CHEERED BY CANADIAN HIGHLANDERS AT SALISBURY ENGLAND.

Red Cross Nurse Bringing Clothing, Welcomed by Belgian Troops in the Trenches. (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM, IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE AT DIXMUDE, PINNING A MEDAL TO THE COLORS OF THE SEVENTH BELGIAN REGIMENT

(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

for Recent Conspicuous Gallantry in the Face of Superior Numbers

PRESIDENT POINCARE OF FRANCE, KING ALBERT, AND GEN. JOFFRE, INSPECTING THE ALLIED TROOPS AT FURNES, BELGIUM.

THE NEW BRITISH "SPORTSMAN'S BATTALION" LEAVING HYDE PARK, LONDON, FOR THE HORNCHURCH CAMP, WHERE ITS TRAINING FOR SERVICE AT THE FRONT WILL BE COMPLETED. (Photo from Brown Brothers.)