

The delegates assembled in front of the convention headquarters.

Photo by Cole & Co., Asbury Park, N. J.

The Countess, winner of the race of the New York Athletic Club for fast motor boat cruisers off Block Island.

Photo by Edwin Levick

Landing a Shark at Beach Haven, N. J.—Herbert Savage has the pole and E. F. Warner is hauling the shark ashore by the tail after having put three 38-calibre bullets into it. The shark is of the blue nose variety and is six feet long. It was at Beach Haven that a man-eating shark first appeared on the Jersey coast to seize and kill a bather.

© Underwood & Underwood.

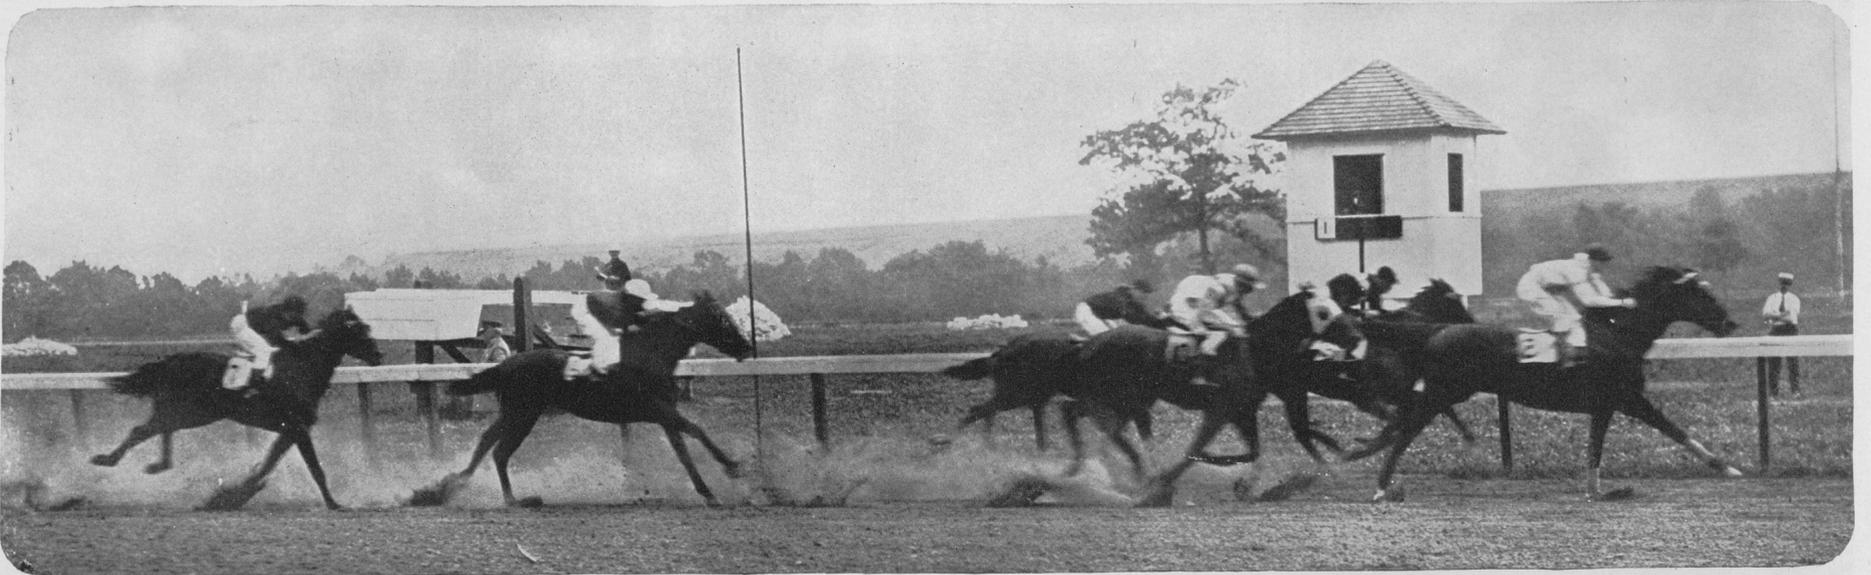

A BLUE NOSE SHARK CAUGHT AT BEACH HAVEN, N. J.—The first of the man-eating sharks to invade the Jersey coast made his first kill at Beach Haven. The picture shows E. F. Warner and a six-foot shark caught by himself and Herbert Savage.

© Underwood & Underwood

A snapshot of one of the jumpers at the Richmond Horse Show held in London despite the war.

© Brown Bros., New York

Short Grass winning the Empire City Handicap at the Empire City track opening. Roamer is second and Spur third.

Greecy Photo Service.