

GUADALOUPE MELENDEZ,
A Pure-Blooded Aztec Indian Dancer and Diver in "Cheer Up," at the Hippodrome.
(Abbé.)

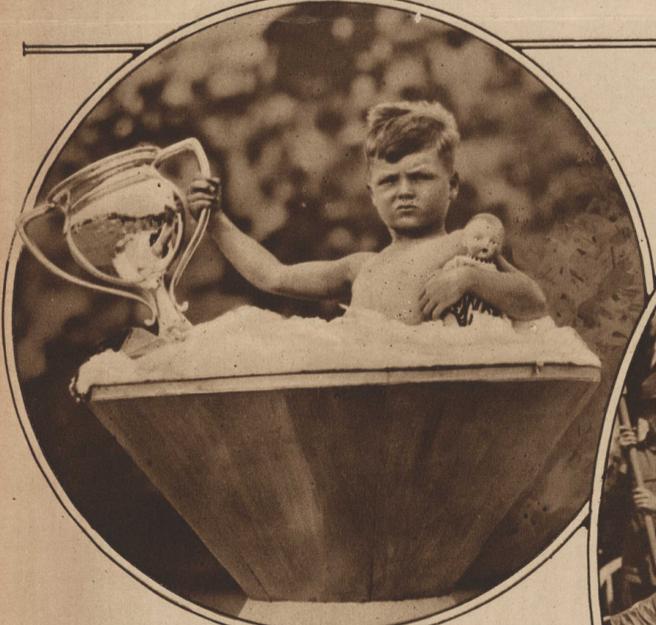

GRACE
GEORGE,
Actress, on the Sound in Front of Her Country Place at New Rochelle, N. Y.
(White Studio.)

INA CLAIRE,
Who Made Her First Appearance on the Dramatic Stage in "Polly with a Past," at the Belasco Theatre, on Last Thursday.
(Charlotte Fairchild.)

GERMAN SAILORS FROM THE FORMER COMMERCE
RAIDER KRONPRINZ WILHELM MAKING TOY
SOLDIERS AT FORT McPHERSON, GA.,
WHERE THEY ARE NOW INTERNED.
(Central News Photo Service.)

"BILLY" THOMAS,
Son of J. Allen Thomas of Ocean Grove, N. J., as "Billy Sundae," Winner of the First Prize in the Baby Carriage and Go-cart Division.
(Paul Thompson.)

MRS. BESSIE McCOY DAVIS,
Widow of Richard Harding Davis, Who Is Soon to Return to the Stage, at Her Home at Mount Kisco, N. Y.
(Press Illustrating Service.)

MARGUERITE CLARK
Lunching on Tomatoes from the Vines of her "Win the War Garden" at Her
Rye Beach Summer Home.
(Libby.)

SYBIL CARMEN
In the Ziegfeld Midnight Frolic Atop the New Amsterdam Theatre.

MISS GRUZILLA
TAYLOR
as
"Miss Liberty," Queen of the Annual Asbury
Park Carnival and Baby Parade.
(Paul Thompson.)

MISCHA ELMAN,
Violinist, and His Sisters, Misses Mina, Liza and Esther Elman, on the Grounds of His Summer Home at Port Washington, L. I. (Both News Service.)