

WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARADERS BEARING IN THE PARADE ON FIFTH AVENUE A WEEK AGO PLACARDS CONTAINING THE SIGNATURES OF MORE THAN 1,000,000 WOMEN OF NEW YORK STATE WHO ASK THE MEN OF THE STATE TO GIVE THEM THE VOTE. (Times Photo Service.)

THE CORSAIR, FORMERLY OWNED BY J. P. MORGAN, PATROLLING THE SUBMARINE ZONE FOR THE PROTECTION OF AMERICAN SHIPS. A British Dirigible, Also on the Lookout for Submarines, Can Be Seen in the Distance.

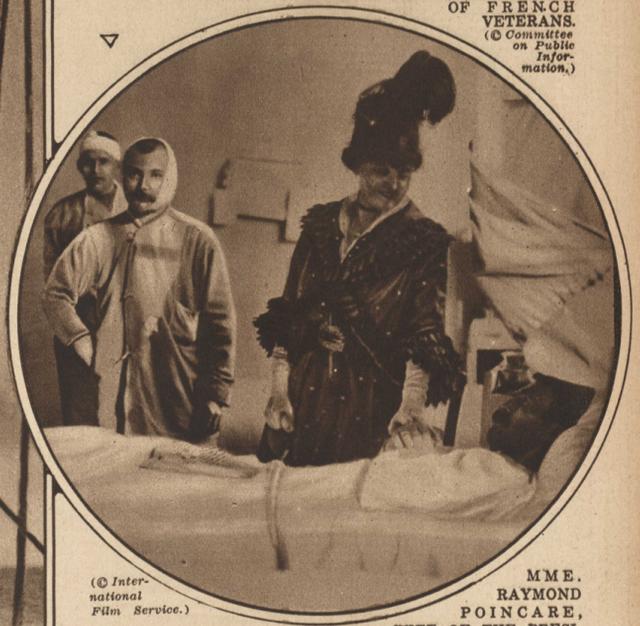

AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE RAID A WAR GAME TRENCH UNDER THE DIRECTION OF FRENCH VETERANS. (© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICANS TRAINED IN THE OPERATION AND USE OF CAPTIVE BALLOONS IN WARFARE IN THE COLLEGIATE BALLOON SCHOOL, ROCKVILLE, CONN. From These Balloons Run Telephone and Telegraph Wires to Artillery Posts Behind the Lines, Over Which the Range of Enemy Batteries Is Given to the Artillery Commanders. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF A BRITISH DIRIGIBLE GUARDING AN AMERICAN TRANSPORT THROUGH THE SUBMARINE ZONE.

MME. RAYMOND POINCARÉ, WIFE OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, VISITING THE WOUNDED IN A WAR HOSPITAL BEHIND THE FRENCH FRONT. (© International Film Service.)

BRITISH COASTAL AIRSHIP RETURNING TO ITS HANGAR AFTER A PERIOD OF LOOKOUT DUTY FOR GERMAN SUBMARINES. (Underwood & Underwood.)