Misses' Dotted Swiss Frocks

FROCKS for the Southland are here—airy, flimsy things, enchantingly Feminine.
[Sizes 14 to 20 years.]

MODEL NO. 49
THE wonder-working looms of France and Switzerland were called upon for the woven dotted Swiss and sheer plain voile that are combined in this adorable Frock for the Miss and Small Woman, in orchid, rose, pink, blue and white. For trimming there are graduated bands of dotted Swiss on plain voile on the skirt and blouse, and the most frivolous of lace collars hemstitched in color to match. Last but by no means least is the sash of wide satin ribbon.

39.50

MODEL NO. 51
WHAT Miss and Small Woman could resist the charms of this most captivating of Frocks, fashioned of imported diaphanous Swiss muslin on which dots of red, blue, lavender or green are woven? Bands of embroidered Swiss trim the long tunic of fine white French voile and the color of the dot is repeated in the soft sash of silken ribbon. A new note is introduced in the three-quarter sleeves of white voile with flaring cuffs of embroidered Swiss, and a collar of tucked voile lace trimmed adds the final touch of daintiness.

KRYSTALAK
Pure, clean, nourishing, separated milk in crystal form

Every housewife should have a package of KRYSTALAK handy for cooking. A 50 cent package of Krystalak makes five quarts of cooking milk, thus saving several cents a day. Krystalak is more economical than any other milk for cooking. You can make the milk in a minute, whenever you need it, and in just the quantity needed. You never need to worry about the milk having spoiled or running out of milk just before a meal. Krystalak is more convenient than bottled milk.
