

DUN-SUR-MEUSE, REACHED BY THE AMERICAN ARMIES ON NOV. 2, NINE DAYS BEFORE THE SIGNING OF THE ARMISTICE. THE TOWN, SET UPON A HILL OVERLOOKING THE MEUSE, WAS CAUGHT BETWEEN THE FIRE OF THE CONTENDING ARTILLERIES AND NO HOUSE WAS LEFT UNDA-MAGED.

*Important Cities of the Argonne-Meuse
Battleground Redeemed by the Americans in October*

AINCREVILLE, REACHED BY THE 5TH DIVISION ON NOV. ...

THE TOWN OF GESNES,
Scene of the Severe Fighting on Oct. 1, in Which the 91st and 32d Divisions
Took Part
North of the Town
Lies the Hill the Capture of Which Cost the Americans Heavily.

DETAILED VIEW OF THE HILL NORTH OF GESNES, SCARRED AND TORN BY SHOT AND SHELL, WHERE
2,000 AMERICANS
WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED, ACCORDING TO UNOFFICIAL REPORTS.

WAR-TORN IVOIRY,
NORTH OF MONT-FAUCON.

THE VILLAGE OF CUNEL, ITS SURROUND-ING FIELDS
POCK-MARKED BY THE EX-PLOSIONS
OF HEAVY SHELLS.

ROMAGNE REACHED BY THE AMERICANS OF THE 32D DIVISION ON OCT 9.
The Village Has Been Almost Obliterated. To the Right Appears a Shell-Swept Cemetery.