

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, UNDER THE SHADOW OF NAPOLEON'S STATUE, Receiving an Address of Welcome at the Commencement of the Military Academy at St. Cyr, the West Point of France, from Which, at This Time, Were Graduated Members of the Various War Classes Who Left the Academy Halls in the Midst of the Great War and Who Now Return as Veterans, Some with the Rank of Colonel, and Many with the Most Coveted Military Medals of the Republic.
(© International Film Service.)

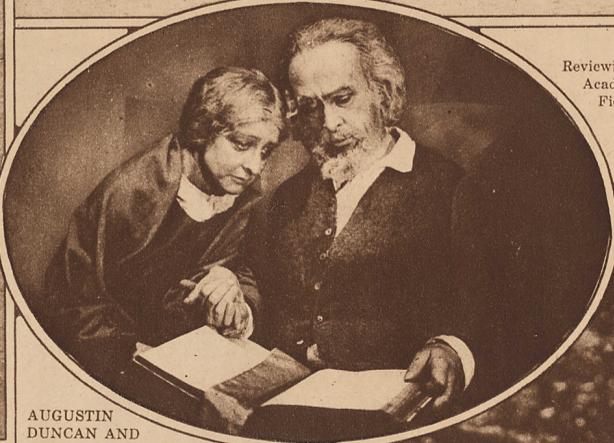

"THE END OF A PERFECT DAY": GOVERNOR THOMAS RIGGS, JR., OF ALASKA, a Crack Shot and a Fearless Sportsman, Beside a Huge Alaskan Grizzly Bear Just Brought Down by Him on Chichagof Island.

THE S. S. BRUSSELS, CAPTAIN CHARLES FRYATT'S SHIP, WITH WHICH HE SOUGHT TO RAM THE GERMAN U-BOAT ATTACKING HIM, for Which He Was Executed by a German Firing Squad, Awash from Stem to Stern in Shoal Water at Zeebrugge, Where the Germans Finally Sank Her, But Soon to be Salvaged in Captain Fryatt's Honor and to Fly Again the British Flag.

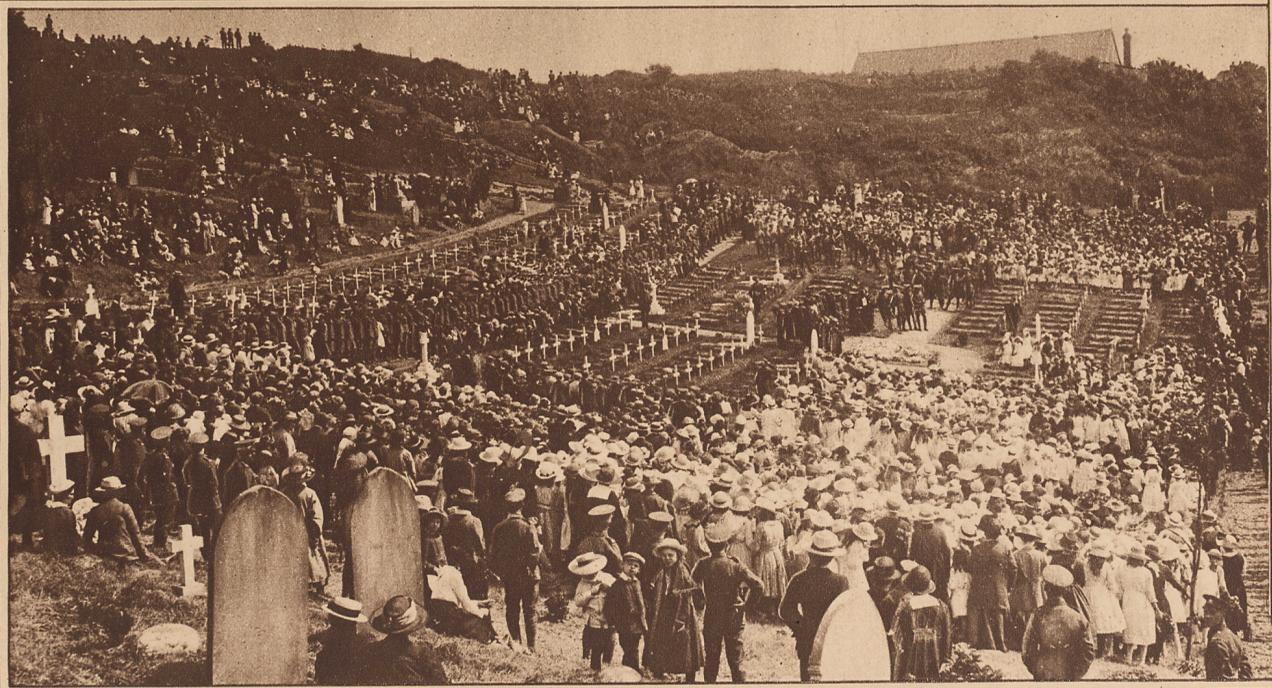

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ Reviewing Former Cadets of the St. Cyr Military Academy, Who Were Trained for War on the Field of Battle, But Now Return to Receive the Honors of Their Alma Mater.
(© International Film Service.)

AUGUSTIN DUNCAN AND HELEN WESTLEY, in a Scene from "John Ferguson," at the Fulton Theatre.
(© Francis Bruguière.)

JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS, Nestor of the Catholic Prelates of America, at Four Score Years and Five. From a Photograph Taken on His Recent Eighty-fifth Birthday in the Garden of His Friend, General T. Herbert Shriver, at Union Mills, Carroll County, Md.
(International Film Service.)

BETWEEN THREE AND FIVE THOUSAND CANADIAN CHILDREN OF FOLKESTONE AND SURROUNDING TOWNS Assembled at the Shorncliffe Garrison Cemetery for Their Annual Decoration of the Graves of Canadian Soldiers Who Made the Supreme Sacrifice.
(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)