

PRESIDENT WILSON, ON BEHALF OF THE "BIG FOUR" OF THE PEACE CONFERENCE, Including Himself and the Premiers of Great Britain, France, and Italy, Presenting the "Big Four" Roosters of Celebrated Breed, Obtained in France by Admiral Knapp, to the State of Alabama to be Sold for the Benefit of the Dixie Highway Project. The President Is Joining in the General Laughter Which Followed Some One's Remark That "Lloyd George," the Rooster Named for the British Prime Minister, "Looked Sick."
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE VILLA BYRON, PRESENT SEAT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, OVERLOOKING THE LAKE OF GENEVA, GENEVA, SWITZERLAND. This and Accompanying Pictures Are, So Far as Known, the First to be Received in This Country for Publication of the Seat of the League of Nations, and the View Therefrom of the Lake of Geneva and Surrounding Country.
(From Times Wide World Photos.)

AMERICAN JOURNALISTS, Who for Months Reported the Sessions of the Peace Conference, but Are Now on Holiday Bent. Grouped in Front of the Seat of the League of Nations at Geneva.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

CORPORAL JOSEPH E. ALLEN of Richmond, Va., Who Has Been Decorated by Marshal Petain and General Pershing Respectively with the French War Cross and the American Distinguished Service Cross for Having, with the Assistance of Four Comrades, "Captured Eight German Machine Guns and Their Crews in the Face of Determined Resistance."
(Poster.)

VIEW OF THE LAKE OF GENEVA AND THE DISTANT MOUNTAINS FROM THE VILLA BYRON.
(From Times Wide World Photos.)

Y. M. C. A. WORKERS OF NEW YORK DECORATED by Captain Adrienne de Pachmann of the French High Commission with the French War Cross for Gallant Service in Positions of Great Peril. They Are, Left to Right: Mrs. Louise W. Fleming, Mrs. A. S. Dwight, Miss Burnetta Adams Miller, Captain de Pachmann, and Mrs. Robert Mead, Who Brought the Decorations from Marshal Petain's Headquarters.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

ROLAND ROHLFS, Chief Test Pilot for the Curtiss Corporation, Who a Week Ago Made a New American Altitude Record Above Roosevelt Field, L. I., Reaching the Height of 30,700 Feet, Where He Was Halted by a 100-Mile Windstorm and a Temperature of 25 Degrees Below Zero.
(International Film Service.)

THE U. S. COASTGUARD CUTTER TALLAPOOSA PASSING CLOSE BY ONE OF FOUR HUGE ICEBERGS SIGHTED LATE IN JUNE in Latitude 43 North, Longitude 50 West, This Group Making Twenty-two Icebergs Charted and Reported to Vessels on Transatlantic Ship Lanes in the Months of April, May, and June.
(From Times Wide World Photos.)