

MRS. LAURENCE LEWIS, Formerly Miss Louise Wise, Heiress to the Flagler Millions, at the White Sulphur Springs.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS CAROL SMITH OF PHILADELPHIA TAKING THE HURDLES AT THE WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS HORSE SHOW.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

ARMENIAN GIRL, Carried Off by a Turkish Officer to be His Slave, and Tattooed by Him
for Purposes of Identification, Now
Under Treatment
by the American National Board of Young Women's Christian Associations.

(From Times Wide World Photos.)

FRANCE AND BELGIUM UNITE
IN THE CELEBRATION OF VIC-TORY IN THE CITY OF LIEGE, SCENE OF THE FIRST GREAT BATTLES OF THE WORLD WAR.
Seated Before the Speaker's Rostrum in the Acclimatization Garden, Where the Ceremonies Took Place, Are, Left to Right: Marshal Foch, Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians, President Poincare of the French Republic, King Albert of the Belgians, Mme. Poincare, and Prince Leopold, Heir to the Belgian Throne.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

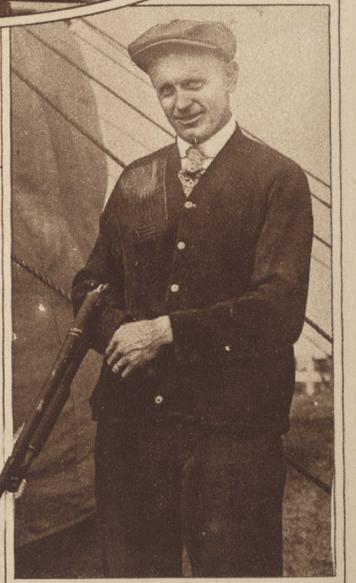

GOVERNOR
ALFRED E. SMITH OF NEW YORK
Holding a Conference With His Newly Appointed Commissioners on the High Cost of Living, With Former Governor
Martin Glynn at His Right, and, at His Left, Dr. John H.
Finley, State Commissioner of Education.
(Curtis Photo News.)

THE BILLING SAIL NOT YET DRIVEN FROM THE HIGH SEAS: THE SCHOONER R. R.
GOVIN
About to be Launched from the Cartaret Ferry Corporation Shipyards, Staten Island.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

HOWARD
CHANDLER
CHRISTY, ARTIST AND IL-LUSTRATOR, AND BRIDE,
Formerly Mrs. Nancy
M. Palmer, for Several Years His Chief Model,
Some of the War Posters for Which She Posed, Including "Americans All"
and "I Want You for the Navy."
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FRANK TROEH
of Vancouver, B. C., Who Captured the Amateur American Trapshooting Championship,
With a Perfect Score of 200 Clay Birds, at the South Shore Country Club, Chicago.
(International Film Service.)