

COUNTESS CURZON OF KEDLESTON,
Daughter of the Late J. Monroe Hinds, American Ambasador to Brazil, and Widow of Alfred Duggan.
(Int. Film Service.)

*Fair
Americans
Who, Like Lady
Astor, Play a Large
Part in London's Social and Political Life*

LADY MARGARETTA
MAIDSTONE,
Daughter of Anthony Drexel, and Granddaughter of the Late John Armstrong of Baltimore.
(Int.
Film Service.)

MRS.
WILLIAM
B. LEEDS,
Widow of William B.
Leeds, and Owner of Kenwood,
Formerly the Residence of the Grand Duke Michael.
(International Film Service.)

THE DUCHESS OF MARLBOR-OUGH,
Formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, Now a Member of the County Council of London, and Active in All Charitable Work in the British Capital.
(International Film Service.)

COUNTESS BEATTY,
Daughter of the Late Marshall Field of Chicago, Whose Husband, Commander of the British Grand Fleet, Was Recently Created Earl in Recognition of His Service in the War.
(International Film Service.)

MISS CHRISTINE WALLACE CRANE,
Debutante Daughter of Mrs. Warren Seabury Crane.

PRINCESS YOLANDE
MARGARET OF SAVOY,
Eldest Daughter of King Emmanuel III. of Italy. From a New Photograph Just Received in This Country.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

QUEEN VICTORIA EUGENIA OF SPAIN, ON HER RECENT SOJOURN IN LONDON, VISITING A MATERNITY CENTRE AT NORTH ISLINGTON.
(Times Wide World Photos.)