

BERLIN STUDENTS AND CITIZENS MAKING A CLAMOROUS DEMONSTRATION BEFORE HELFERICH'S VILLA IN HITZIGSTRASSE SHORTLY AFTER HINDENBURG'S ARRIVAL THERE on His Recent Visit to Berlin, in the Winter's First Snowstorm, Having Been Summoned to Testify Before the National Assembly Committee Investigating German War Guilt. The Students and Populace Sought by Every Means in Their Power to Prevent His Attendance on the Committee Hearing. (Times Wide World Photos.)

HINDENBURG REVIEWING GERMAN TROOPS DRAWN UP IN HIS HONOR IN THE STREETS OF BERLIN. (Times Wide World Photos.)

FORMER CHANCELLOR VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG, GERMANY'S WAR CHANCELLOR, TESTIFYING BEFORE THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON WAR RESPONSIBILITIES. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

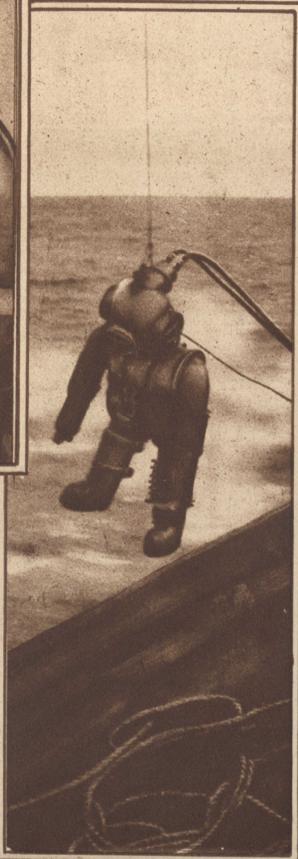

HINDENBURG AND LUDENDORFF REUNITED IN BERLIN, on the Former's Recent Appearance in the German Capital to Answer a Summons From the National Assembly Committee Investigating the Causes of the War and the Various Peace Offers. (Times Wide World Photos.)

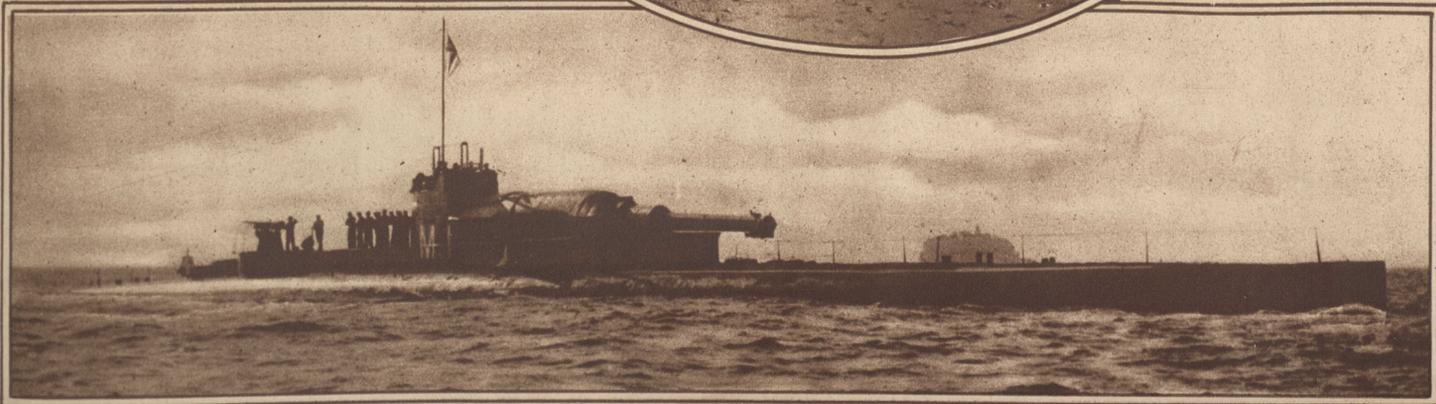

THE FORMER GERMAN EMPEROR'S SECLUDED WALK AT THE BENTINCK CASTLE, AMERONGEN, to Which He Was Driven After the Two Dutch Photographers, by a Ruse, Obtained the First Photograph of Him Since His Flight. (Times Wide World Photos.)

JOHN F. TURNER, a Diver of International Reputation, About to Descend in the New Armor Plate Diving Suit in Which He Was Recently Lowered 360 Feet to the Ocean Bed, This World Record Feat Having Been Accomplished by Him Fifteen Miles Off Graves Light, Massachusetts. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

TURNER, WORLD'S RECORD DIVER, in His New Diving Armor, Swinging Over the Ship's Side for a Descent of More Than 350 Feet. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE BRITISH SUBMARINE, M-1, MOUNTING A TWELVE-INCH GUN, AND ASSERTED TO BE THE MOST HEAVILY ARMED SUBMARINE IN THE WORLD. (International Film Service.)