An Intensified Showing of MAISON HAAS Parisian Adaptations for Spring and Early Summer

THE dresses now being displayed at our New York showrooms contribute to what we term our Intensified Showing because it increases in number and variety as the season advances, gaining added momentum day by day.

Each new shipment sent to us by our designers in France portrays some more recent development of the mode, some still newer and more effective use of fabric or trimming, some even more original interpretation of the authentic Parisian silhouette.

The refreshing newness of your Spring and early Summer displays depends upon the prominence you constantly give to Maison Haas Parisian Adaptations.
