

HENRI, FUTURIST DANCER, Enjoying His Art to the Full on the Snow Covered Slopes of Central Park.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE DINING ROOM
OF THE FORMER GER-MAN CROWN PRINCE'S
PALACE IN BERLIN, A PUBLIC READING
ROOM FOR VISITORS
TO THE ART EXHIB-ITS NOW HELD THERE.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

NO DEARTH OF THE CHRISTMAS GOOSE FOR BERLIN.
The Germans' Favorite "Holiday Birds" Are Here Shown by Thousands Fattening in Pens at Friedrichsfelde, Near Potsdam.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

BETTY BARRETT,
in "Happy Days," at the Hippodrome.
(White.)

JEAN RIBERA, in "The Magic Melody," at the Shubert Theatre.
(White.)

GERALDINE FARRAR IN "CARMEN"
at the Metropolitan Opera House.

JUNE
WALKER,
in "My Lady
Friends," at the Comedy Theatre.
(Schwarz.)

MISSSES JOSEPHINE RUBENSTEIN AND FLORENCE BROOKS, Contestants in Recent Ice Tennis Tourneys, Which Are Becoming Increasingly Popular on Manhattan's Upper West Side.
(International Film Service.)

GABRIELLA BESANZONI AND CHARLES HACKETT,
in "L'Italiana in Algeri," at the Metropolitan Opera House.
(White.)

VICTORIOUS RELAY RACERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOL 40, 70-POUND CLASS.
Who Did Their Share in Returning the Elementary Schools' Indoor Track and Field Championship of New York City to the Borough of Manhattan. The Youthful Runners, Left to Right, Are:
Esposito, Karp, Gentile and Dubner, Fleetest of the Quartet, Despite His Curls.
(Paul Thompson.)