AN "OLD HOME" SMOKE FOR THREE AMERICANS IN FRANCE THROUGH THE COURTESY OF A FRENCH OFFICER WHO HAPPENED TO HAVE A PACKAGE OF VIRGINIA CIGARETTES. (© International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIER IN FRANCE PICKING WILD BERRIES ALONG A ROADSIDE NEAR HIS CAMP.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

THE "BYNG BOYS"—ALGERNON AND GERALD, NEPHEWS OF GENERAL SIR JULIAN BYNG.
From a Portrait on Ivory by Miss Mira Edgerly, to be Shown at the Coming Exhibition of Her Work at the Galleries of Gimpel & Wildenstein.

SENATOR CHARLES HUMBERT,
Owner of Le Journal, Paris, Who Sold an Interest in His Paper to Bolo Pacha for 1,000,000 Francs.
(Kadel & Herbert.)

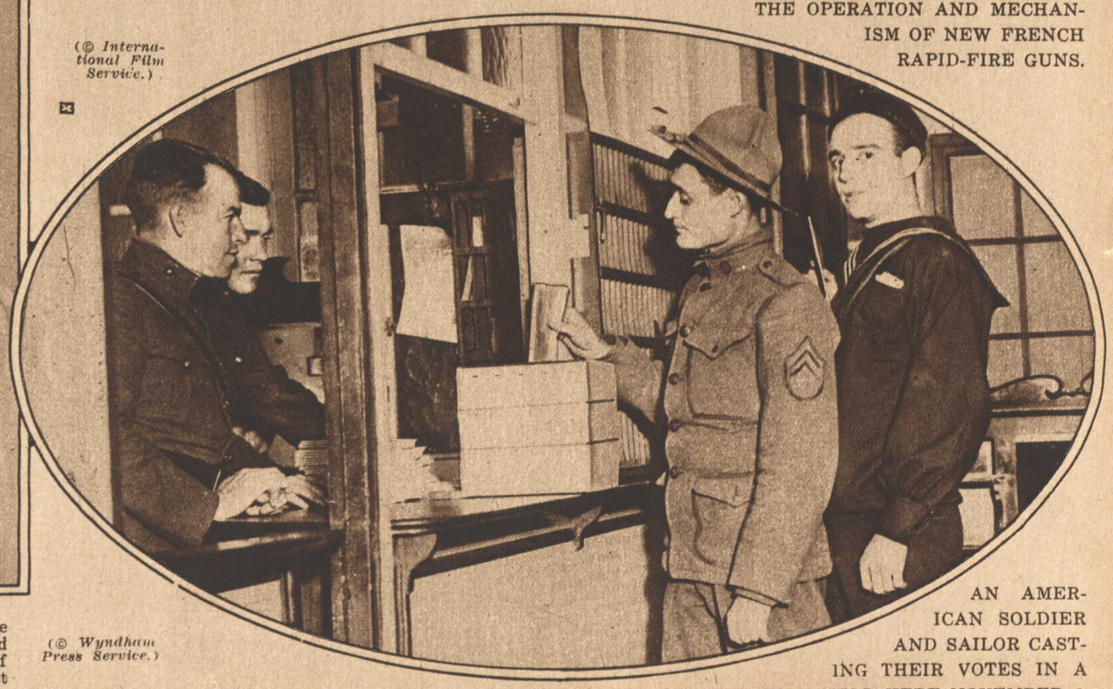
SENTINEL IN FRONT OF THE AMERICAN BARRACKS BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE EXAMINING THE "PASS" OF AN AMERICAN COUPLE WHO HAVE JUST ARRIVED FROM THE "STATES" TO VISIT RELATIVES AT THE CAMP. (© International Film Service.)

ELEUTHERIOS VENIZELOS, PRIME MINISTER OF GREECE, ON ARRIVAL IN PARIS, ATTENDING A RECEPTION HELD IN HIS HONOR AT THE GREEK LEGATION.
M. Venizelos Is Standing at the Right, While Next to Him, in the Central Foreground, Is M. Athos Romanos, Greek Minister in Paris. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN MACHINE GUN SQUAD RECEIVING INSTRUCTION FROM FRENCH ALPINE CHASSEURS IN THE OPERATION AND MECHANISM OF NEW FRENCH RAPID-FIRE GUNS.

AMERICANS IN FRANCE RECEIVING A LESSON IN FRENCH WHILE BASKING IN THE SUNSHINE JUST OUTSIDE OF ONE OF THEIR BARRACKS.
(© International Film Service.)

MRS. IAN HAY BEITH,
In Charge of One of the Booths in the "Cheshire Cheese," at the Hero Land Bazaar. Mrs. Beith Is the Wife of Major Beith, Author of "The First Hundred Thousand."
(© Marceau.)



(© International Film Service.)

(© Wyndham Press Service.)

AN AMERICAN SOLDIER AND SAILOR CASTING THEIR VOTES IN A ROOM IN RUE ST. ANNE, PARIS, IN THE NEW YORK MAYORALTY ELECTION HELD HERE NOVEMBER 6.