

Winslow Homer's "Coast in Winter," which was recently sold by the Macbeth Galleries to a collector for $33,000, one of the highest prices ever paid for a modern American painting.

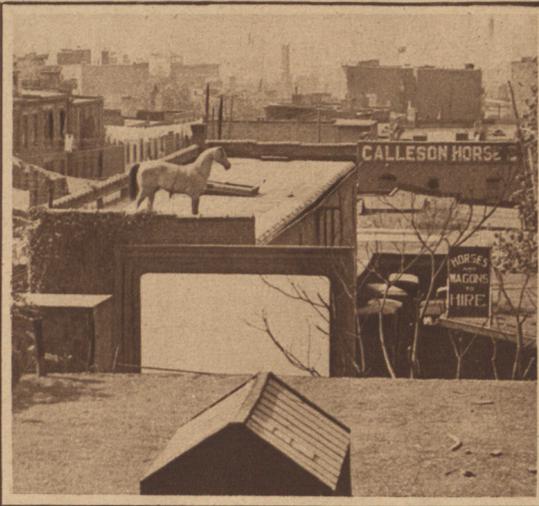

Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, former Ambassador to Denmark, who, together with Mr. J. B. Kennedy, is writing the official history of the war work done by the Knights of Columbus.

Coningsby Dawson, famous author, who served in France throughout the war as an officer in the Canadian artillery. His war books, "How to Win" and "The Glory of the Trenches," have won for him a new place in literature. He has just returned from Germany and is soon to give a series of lectures on the effect of the war on civilization.

"Speedy" Rush, the new coach of Cornell's football eleven, makes the acquaintance of Touchdown III, popular bear cub mascot of the big Red team. Dr. Al Sharp, Cornell's former coach, is now athletic director at Yale.

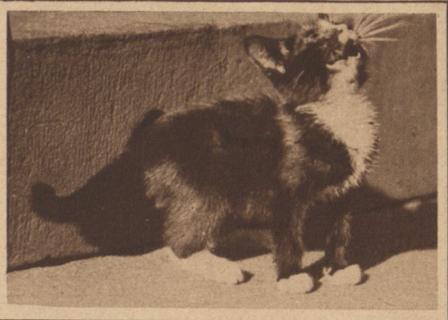

Who said cats have no sense of humor? Here's a kitten from Boston that evidently has one. The photographer has just told a funny one and pussy is laughing her whiskers off.

Have the horses in Brooklyn taken to the roofs to keep up with the high cost of oats? Guess again. A liveryman thought a wooden horse a good advertisement. If he attracts as much patronage as the horse attracts attention we'll say he was right.

If you have ever motored to Long Beach you know him. He's Shorty, the famous traffic cop at Five Corners, Lynbrook. Just five feet short and on the job for fifteen years.

China of Charm

THE finest products of the potter's art have always met at Ovington's. For seventy years Ovington's has been recognized by New Yorkers as the china shop where charming sets were always to be had at very moderate prices.

1183—For breakfast, informal occasions and for the cottage one wants the brightest and cheeriest china—just the pleasing result achieved in the Ming pattern on fine Lenox china. 150-piece Ming China Dinner Set, special price, $175.00; 7-piece Cake Set, special price, $15.00; 7-piece Chop Set, special price, $16.50; 23-piece Tea Set, special price, $35.00.

1329—For chop or salad service nothing could be more handsome than this set of Royal Doulton. Ivory tinted semi-porcelain decorated with sprays of flowers in rich old tones of brown, yellow, blue and green. Set consists of six plates and one chop or salad platter. Price, $8.50.

1325—That popular institution—ice cream—will have added flavor when served upon this china. Ice cream set decorated about the border with a dark blue band overlaid with pink roses and asters and in the center with the same colored flowers. Gold handles. Set consists of six plates and one server. Price, $10.00.

1334—This nineteen piece individual breakfast set is of white china decorated with a pink band and topped with a band of pink roses and blue forget-me-nots. Breakfast set and tray—specially priced at $20.00.

Paul W. Bartlett has just completed this statue of Benjamin Franklin, which is to be erected in Waterbury, Conn. It is considered one of the best things the sculptor has done and is more subtle than monumental, just as this same sculptor's famous statue of Lafayette in Paris is more monumental than subtle.
