Officers Who Were Conspicuous Figures in the War

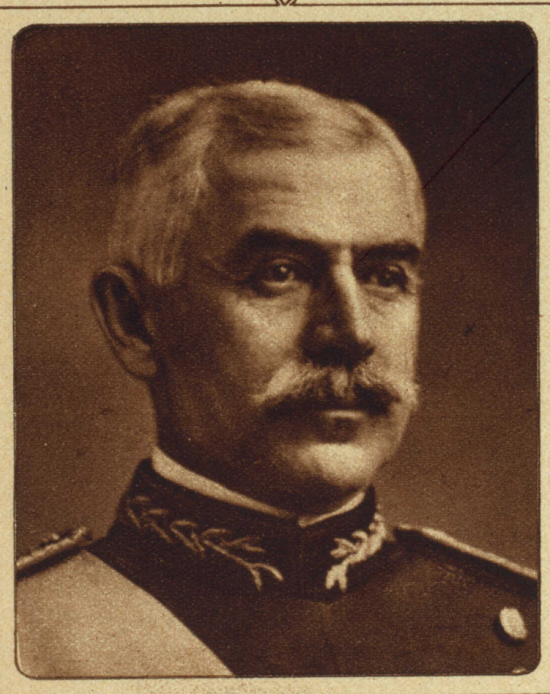
MAJOR GEN. G. W. LANGFITT,
Chief Engineer of American Expeditionary Forces in France.
(© U. S. Official.)

MAJOR GEN. JOHN E. McMAHON,
Commanding Fifth Regular Army Division of Third Corps.

MAJOR GEN. JOHN F. MORRISON,
Director of Military Training at U. S. War College.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)

MAJOR GEN. JOHN L. HINES,
Commanding Fourth Regular Army Division. Later with Army of Occupation.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)

MAJOR GEN. JOHN W. RUCKMAN,
Commander of the Northeastern Department of U. S. Army.
(© Harris & Ewing.)



MAJOR GEN. THOMAS H. BARRY,
Succeeded J. Franklin Bell as Commander of the East, January, 1919.

MAJOR GEN. GEORGE BARNETT,
Commandant of the United States Marine Corps.
(© Harris & Ewing.)

MAJOR GEN. WILLIAM A. MANN,
First commander of the 42d or "Rainbow" Division.
(© Harris & Ewing.)