

Capitals of Two Newly Born European Republics

WARSAW, THE CAPITAL OF POLAND, SHOWING THE VISTULA RIVER AND THE PRAGUE SUBURB. WARSAW WAS CAPTURED BY THE GERMANS IN THE VICTORIOUS DRIVE AGAINST THE RUSSIAN ARMIES, BUT IS NOW IN POSSESSION OF THE POLES.

THE WENZLSPLACE IN PRAGUE, A BROAD AND BEAUTIFUL BOULEVARD, BORDERED BY BUILDINGS WHOSE DOMES AND TURRETS HAVE AN ORIENTAL SUGGESTION. PRAGUE IS THE CAPITAL OF THE NEW CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC.
