11, Parker Street,
Cambridge.

Dear Mr. Muftah,

Very many thanks for your pretty Christmas card with your good wishes.

I hope that by now you have received the reprint of the second part of my article on the Turuhat which I sent to you through Yassa Abd el Masih.

I often think of you, and I trust that one day in the not too distant future you will be able to visit England again.

I heard that you were very busy on your farm. What do you grow there? I remember that the head of my college in Cambridge visited the Delta a few years ago to make a study of the agricultural conditions there, and he brought back a very favourable report indeed.

As you were so kind as to ask me about a book, I enclose a list of all the Coptic liturgical and other books which I possess. You will thus see what books I have. There are probably many of which I do not know the name, and, therefore, I leave the choice to you.

Have you made any further steps in your proposed edition of the Coptic Church music? I shall be glad to hear, if so.

With very kindest regards,
Yours very sincerely,
O. H. E. Brewster.
