I CANNOT SING THAT SONG TO NIGHT.

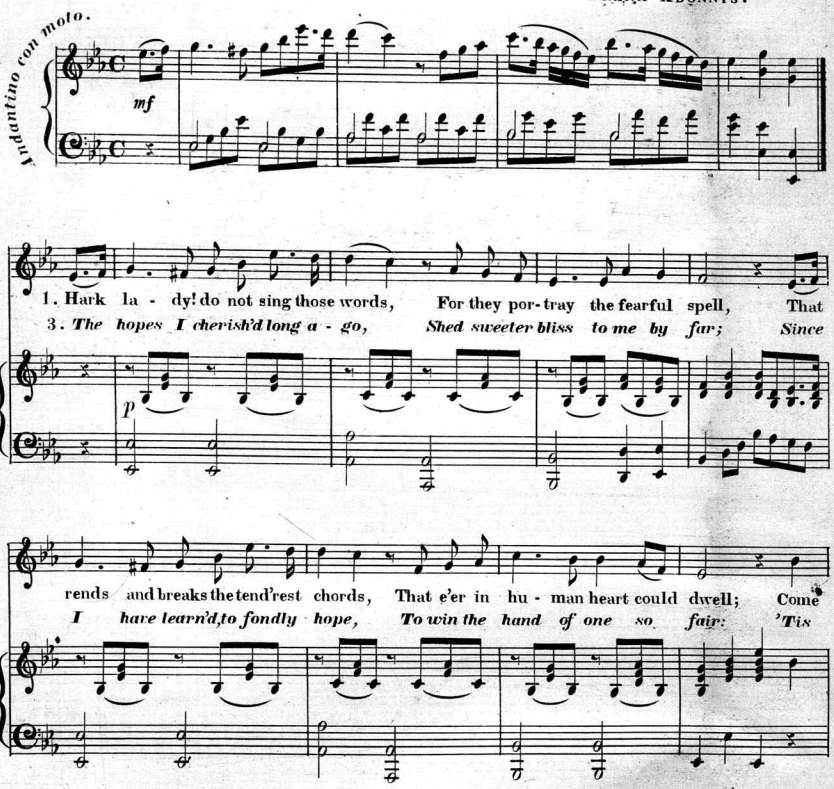
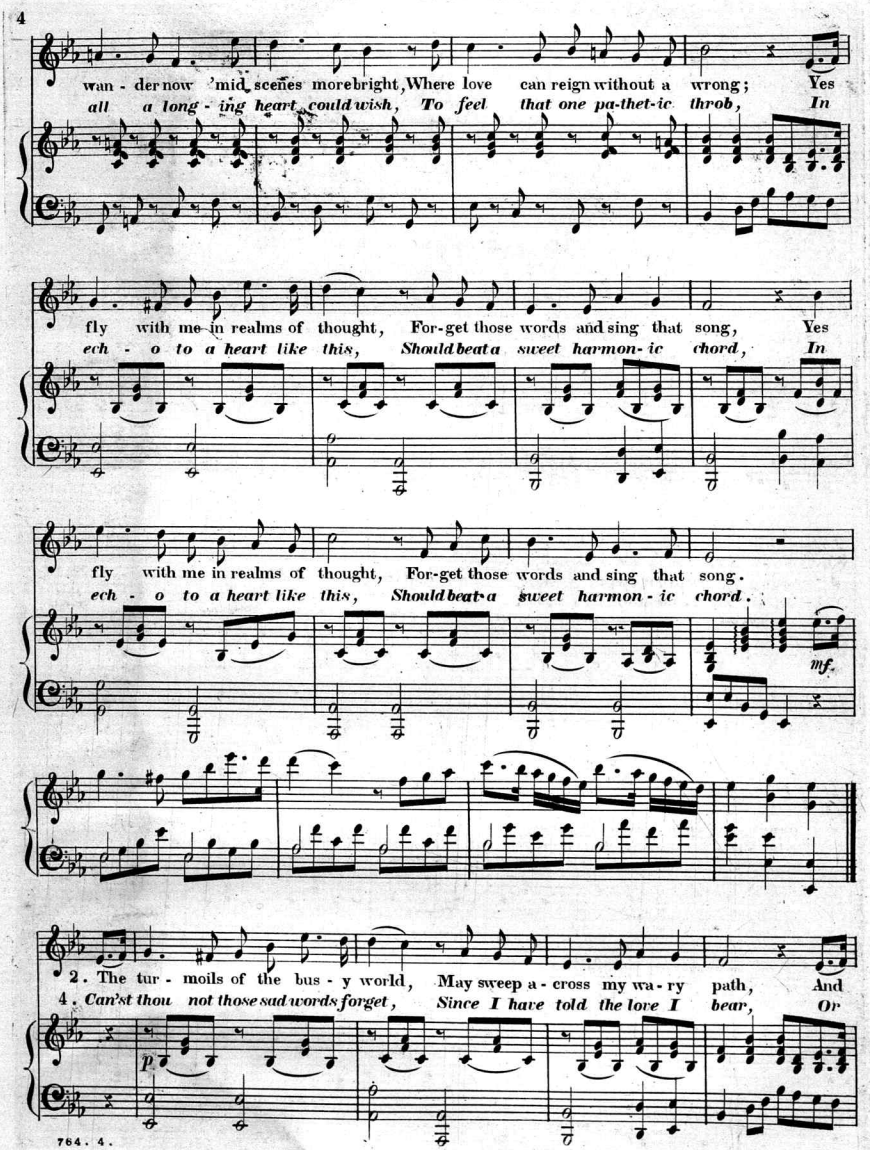
FRANK ADONNIS.



Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1870, by Bollman & Schatzman, in the Clerk's Office of the Eastern District Court of Mo.



wan - der now 'mid scenes more bright, Where love can reign without a wrong; Yes all a long - ing heart could wish, To feel that one pa-thet-ic throb, In fly with me in realms of thought, For-get those words and sing that song, Yes ech - o to a heart like this, Should beat a sweet harmon - ic chord, In fly with me in realms of thought, For-get those words and sing that song.
ech - o to a heart like this, Should beat a sweet harmon - ic chord.

2. The tur - moils of the bus - y world, May sweep a - cross my wa - ry path, And
4. Can'st thou not those sad words forget, Since I have told the love I bear, Or p.

storms may come with seeming pow'r, To crush me in their gor - y wrath; Yet dost there lin-ger one bright hope, That thou can'st call a guid- ding star; If rec - ol-lec - tions of the past, With love to chasten ev'-ry plea, Shall not, then list - en to my song, The words are flowings of my heart: Yes forge a firm un-yield-ing chain, To bind me, heart and hand to thee, Shall rid thy bo-som of that pang, And those sad words for-e'er for - get, Yes forge a firm un-yield-ing chain, To bind me, heart and hand to thee.
rid thy bo-som of that pang, And those sad words for-e'er for - get.
