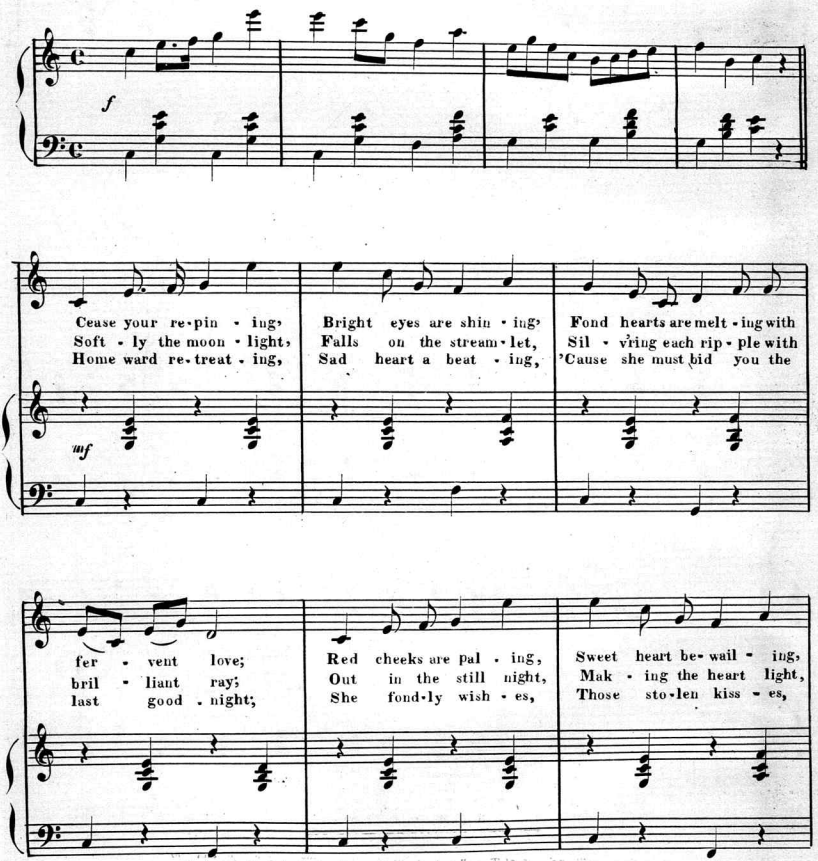
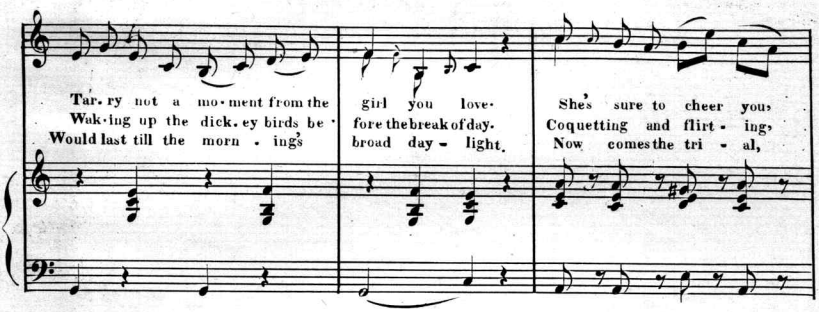
WAIT TILL THE MOONLIGHT FALLS ON THE WATER.

Words and Music by S. Bagnal.

Tempo di Marcia.





Tar-ry not a mo-ment from the girl you love-Wak-ing up the dick-ey birds be-fore the break of day.
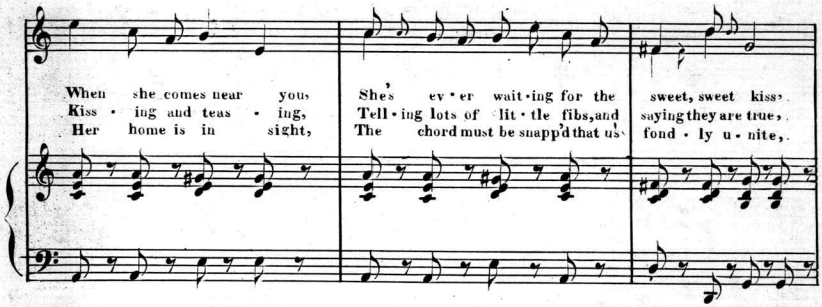
Would last till the morn-ing's broad day-light.
She's sure to cheer you,
Coquetting and flirt-ing,
Now comes the tri-al,



When she comes near you,
Kiss-ing and teas-ing,
Her home is in sight, She's ev-er wait-ing for the Tell-ing lots of lit-tle fibs, and The chord must be snapp'd that us-sweet, sweet kiss,
saying they are true,
fond-ly u-nite,

If you're in-clin'd for a Some say it's naughty, but still Her face she upturned for a mid-night ram-ble,
it's very pleas-ing,
last fare-well kiss,
Tell me what you think a bout a Just wait a mo-ment, and I'll
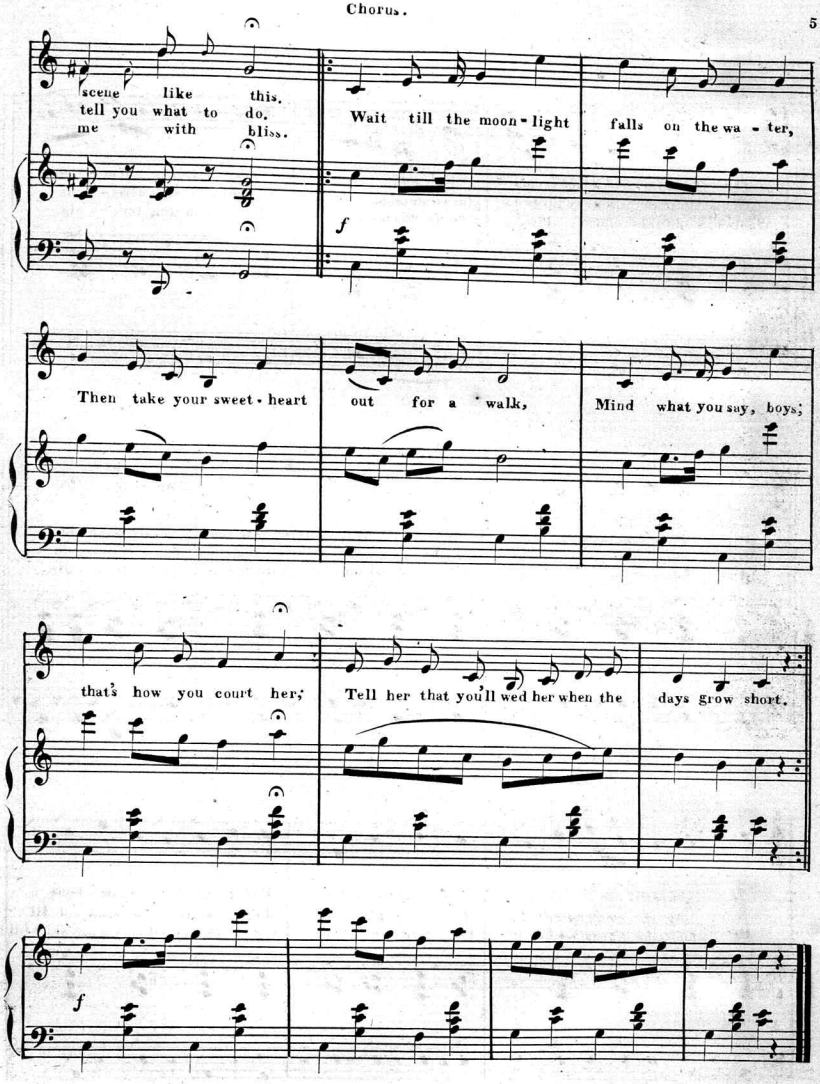
And she whispered some words which fill'd

Chorus.



scene like this.
tell you what to do.
me with bliss.
Wait till the moon-light falls on the wa-ter,
f
Then take your sweet-heart out for a walk, Mind what you say, boys;
that's how you court her;
Tell her that you'll wed her when the days grow short.
