Intro.

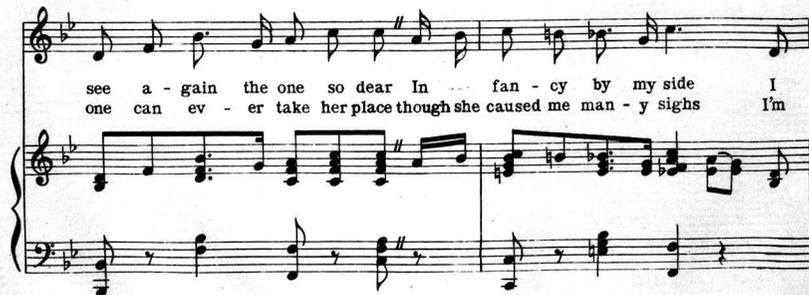

The introduction is written for piano in a 4/4 time signature with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and arpeggiated figures, while the left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Fond mem'ries to my heart doth cling Of days long since gone by I
In my dreams I see her sweet face The love light in her eyes No

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the upper staff and piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The lyrics are: "Fond mem'ries to my heart doth cling Of days long since gone by I In my dreams I see her sweet face The love light in her eyes No".

see a - gain the one so dear In fan - cy by my side I one can ev - er take her place though she caused me man - y sighs I'm

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "see a - gain the one so dear In fan - cy by my side I one can ev - er take her place though she caused me man - y sighs I'm".

feel the joy of love that's lost No more to be mine Where now a - lone in this sad world And of' re - call the day When ere you be, sweet-heart to thee My soul sings this sweet rhyme

I was forced to leave her side though my heart bid me stay

CHORUS

May-be you think I've for - got - ten, May-be you think I am glad ——— May-be you think I am happ - y, But dear I'm on - ly sad I had to do as I did dear wrong as it may seem to you May be you'd glad - ly for - give me. Sweet-heart if you on - ly knew
