Its gay to roam in merry Spring
Where pretty flow'rets grow;
But O a sweeter joy to us
Dear gentle hearts, I know!
For ev'ry joy we had in life
Comes back to us again,
When we, and someone that we like
Are walking in the lane!

Bright day, you know, may do for some
When birds are singing sweet,
But after dark beneath the leaves
Is just the time to meet.
Then ev'ry joy we had in life
Comes back to us again,
And rosy lips can meet so sly
While walking in the lane.

The roses they are fast asleep
They can't hear what we say;
But night's the very time to speak
What can't be told by day!
Then hands are very softly squeezed
And eyes look love again!
O, earth seems very near to Heaven
While walking in the lane!
