THE SAILOR BOY

A SONG

SUNG BY

Mr. Knight

The Music Composed

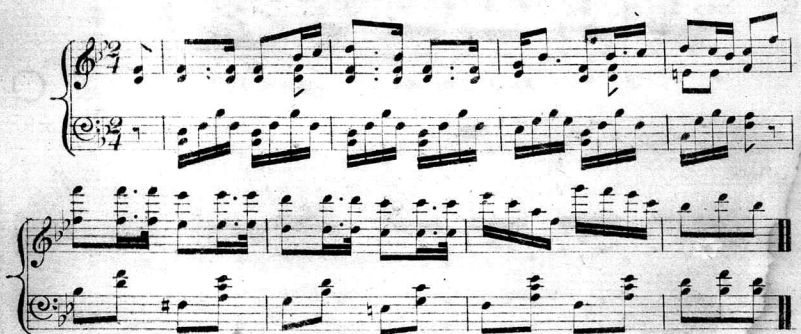
& Respectfully Dedicated to

Richard M. Pell, Esq.

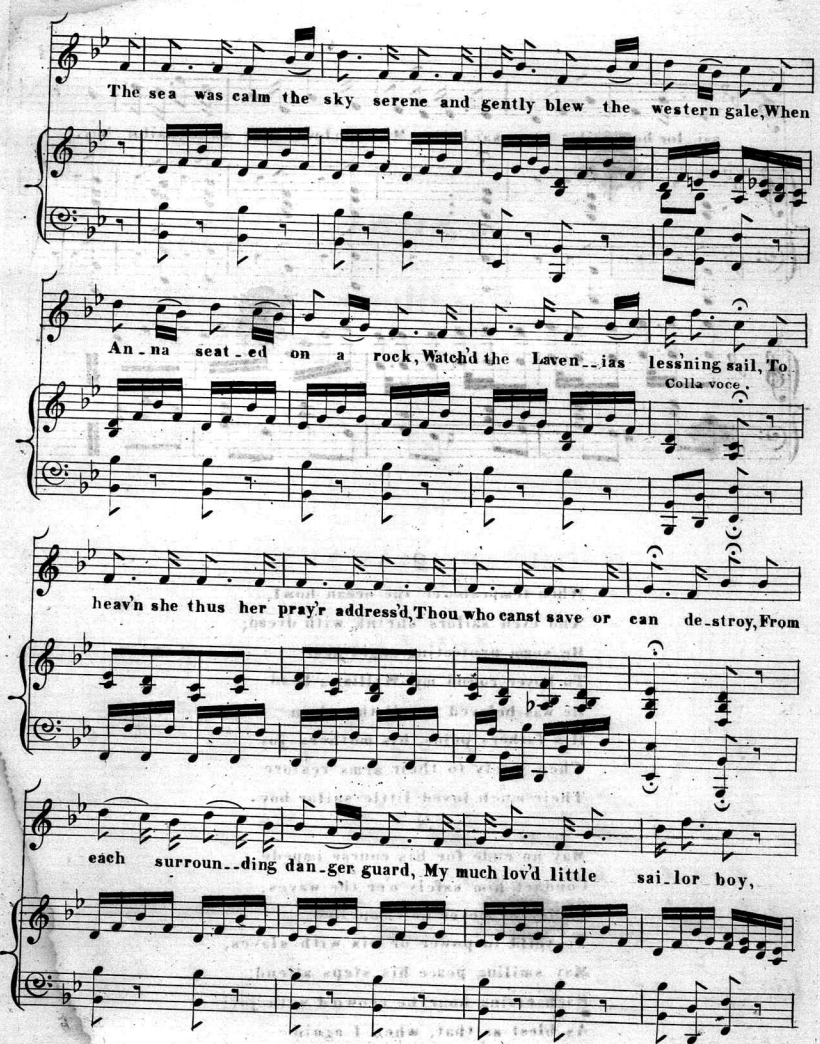
by

JOHN. W. BARNEY.

New York Firth Pond & Co 1 Franklin Square.



Entered according to the Act of Congress in the year 1832 by Firth & Hall, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Southern District of N.Y.



The sea was calm the sky serene and gently blew the western gale, When An-na seat-ed on a rock, Watch'd the Laven-ias lessning sail, To Colla voce.
heav'n she thus her pray'r address'd, Thou who canst save or can de-stroy, From each surroun-ding dan-ger guard, My much lov'd little sai-lor boy,

2

When tempests o'er the ocean howl,
And even sailors shrink with dread;
Be some protecting angel near,
To hover round my Williams head
He was beloved by all the plain
His fathers pride, his mothers joy
Then safely to their arms restore
Their much loved little sailor boy.

3

May no rude foe his course impede
Conduct him safely o'er the waves,
O May he never be compelled
To yeild to power or mix with slaves,
May smiling peace his steps attend,
Each rising hour be crown'd with joy;
As blest as that, when I again
Shall meet my much lov'd sailor boy.
