one was rent and left to die, And the oth-er float-ed for-ward all a-lone. And oh, we were sadden'd, you and I! For we felt that our youth's golden dream Might fade, and our lives be sev-er'd soon, As the two leaves were parted in the stream.

1 'Tis years since we parted, you and I!
 In the sweet summer time long ago,
 And I smile as I pass the river by,
 And I gaze into the shadow depths below.
 I look on the grass and bending reeds,
 And I listen to the soothing song,

And I envy the calm and happy life
 Of the river, as it sings and flows along;
 For, oh, how its song brings back to me
 The shade of our youth's golden dream!
 In the days ere we parted, you and I,
 As the two leaves were parted in the stream.
