"MY ONLY GIRL."

No. 13.

GEO. M. BLANDFORD.

Tempo di Valse.

PIANO. f

VOICE.

1. Down by a bab - bling brook -
2. Last eve - ning when the moon shone let, in spring at eve - ning tide, You'll al - ways find sweet bright and zeph - yers light - ly blew, She said, with ac - cent Ro - sy Lee, and me there side by side. We think of low and clear, to thee, I will be true. Thro' life from fut - ure hap - pi - ness and build up cas - tles high, now and ev - er more, my deep and so - lemn vows,

— To me she's so de - vot - ed, that — is the rea - son — I'll live and keep them hon - est - - ly, as I am do - ing

why. — She has my ten - der sym - pa - thy, and truth - ful - now. — I knew that ev' - ry word she said, came straight-way ly can say, — That to no oth - er maid but her, Will from her heart, — To hear a maid - en speak like that, From my re - spects I pay, Her blue eyes soft - ly beam - - ing, All her, I ne'er would part, It fills my soul with rap - - ture, To filled with love for me, There's none more high - ly hon - ored, than, sweet think that I will be, The on - ly one, to have the love, of charm - ing Ro - sy Lee. She is the on - ly girl I love, She is the charm - ing Ro - sy Lee.

on - ly one that I ad - mire, She is so ve - ry pret - ty, So charm - ing and so wit - ty, That all the lads in town they sigh, As I go pass - ing by, With the on - ly girl I love, With the on - ly one that I ad mire For in the past I knew, her love for me was true, That's why she is the on - ly girl I love.
