INTRODUCTION.

Piano.

Voice.

Moderato.

1. I stood at my win - dow at noon one
2. And so it must be as the years roll day watch - ing the pass - ers by _____ the on fac - es will come and go _____ the rich the— poor and the grave and gay I saw as each world may not no - tice the voic - es gone or ev - en the one drew nigh _____ I thought of the sor - row the new ones know _____ but ev - er as long as the hopes and fears that are locked in the hu - man heart _____ years shall last and— life hath its joy and tears _____

— the cares and tears of a span of years, in — the chang - ing pic - ture will still roll past — which we must play our part — I read in all a o - ver the span of years — and this was all I tale as I was "watch-ing the stream of life — pass by" thought as I was "watch-ing the stream of life — pass by"

Refrain.

Pass - ing a - long in end - less flow cross-ing the span of years we go with pleas - ure and pain with song and sigh on the stream of life we all pass by.
