NEW AND POPULAR SONGS

BY MRS. A. ELMORE.

AT 'BABY'S' GRAVE ONCE MORE,

Is a very popular song, although recently issued. Mrs. A. Elmore's ready pen has never given to the admiring public anything more perfect in the symmetry of verse, more touching in the delineations of a mother's tender memories of the little ones laid to rest, than in this song, which has been adapted to appropriate music by Charles A. Fuller, a popular composer, and pianist. Price 40 cents.

BEAUTIFUL EYES,

Is very charming song, which will find an answering echo in many a heart. Words by Mrs. A. Elmore, music by Charles A. Fuller. Price 40 cents.

GOLDBLOCKS GRANDPA'S DARLING,

Is as merry as the carol of spring birds, like all of Mrs. A. Elmore's poems. The words are pure, the rhythm is perfect, the music is furnished by the very popular composer, Joseph P. Skelly. Every scholar should have it, every teacher should have it, every little golden-haired girl should learn it to sing to "Grandpa."

The title page is worthy of a frame and a nook in the sitting-room of every family where there is a "grandpa," or where the memory of one still lingers. "Dedicated to all the little darlings of all the dear 'grandpas' in this my native land," gives it a title to the entrée of every house. Price 40 cents.

WHEN THE DEW DROPS BRIGHTLY GLISTEN,

Is a sentimental song, which will win a hearty welcome from all lovers of sweet music, and songs which breath a spirit of purity and tenderness. Words by Mrs. A. Elmore. Music by Jos. P. Skelly. Price 40 cents.

ALSO IN PRESS:

A FLOWER FROM FATHER'S GRAVE.

THE HORSE-SHOE CHARM.

And several others from the pen of Mrs. A. ELMORE. Music by popular composers.

SPEAR & DEHNHOFF, Publishers, 717 Broadway, New York.
