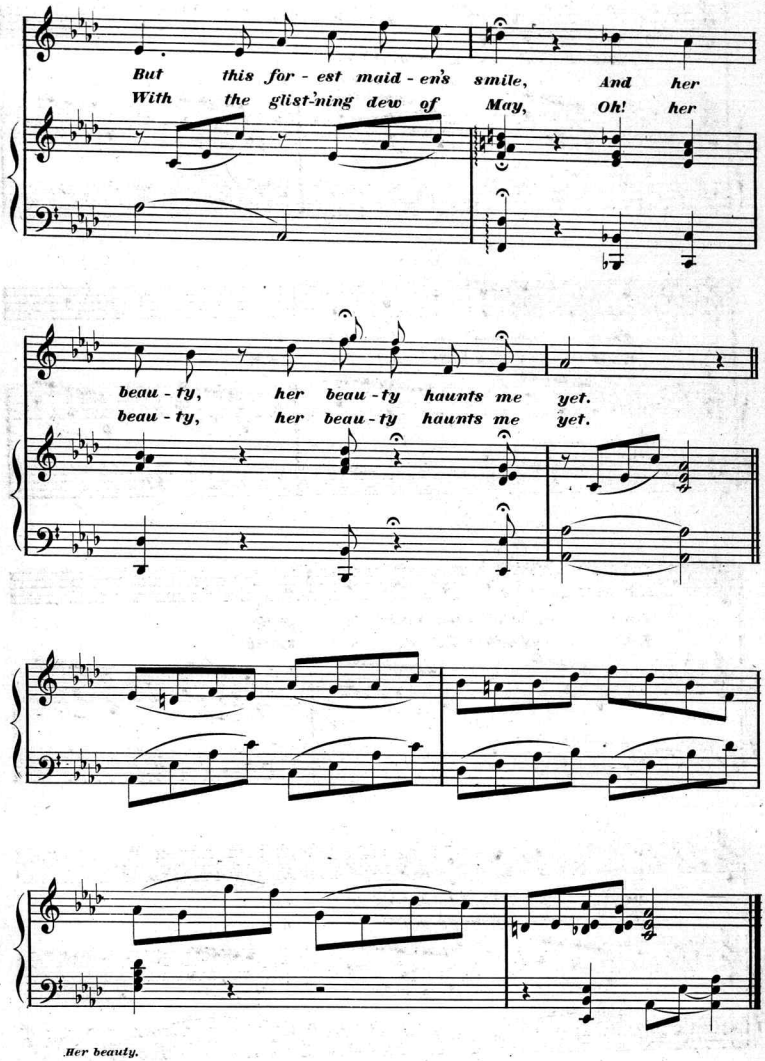
Car - ing not what might be - tide,
And her lig - uid eyes oft speak,
There was none to care for me.
What her lips will not dis - close.
Love could ne'er my heart be - guile,
Lithe and grace-ful as a spray,
Beau - ty all un - moved I met,
Of the hawthorn when tis wet,
Her beauty.



But this for - est maid - en's smile, And her
With the glist'ning dew of May, Oh! her beau - ty, her beau - ty haunts me yet.
beau - ty, her beau - ty haunts me yet.

Her beauty.
