Allegro moderato

The oth-er day I met a friend I had-n't seen in years, He He said, be-fore we mar-ried she was sweet as she could be, And told me he'd been mar-ried and his eyes filled up with tears. I asked him if he'd lost his wife, "Oh there was noth-ing that she did-n't try to do for me, But since we're mar-ried things have changed her no such luck,' said he, My life's a joke she keeps me broke, And then he said to me. ac-tions make me sad, Her fam-i - ly all live with me, And I sleep with her dad.
